

MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Any other – did you investigate any other potential avenues of conflict?  SiSGT. OSMOND:  A. Outside of being family friends with the Dumphys, inpan, that was my concern primarily was Smyth and the Dumphys, right.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Dumphys, Imean, that was my concern primarily was Smyth and the Dumphys, right.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Dumphys, Imean, that was my concern primarily was Smyth and the Dumphys, right.  MS. O'BRIEN:  SiSGT. OSMOND:  A. No, Just Smyth.  MS. O'BRIEN:  SiSGT. OSMOND:  A. No, Just Smyth.  MS. O'BRIEN:  SiSGT. OSMOND:  A. No, Just Smyth.  MS. O'BRIEN:  SiSGT. OSMOND:  A. Idon't know what they're referring to inter of you know of something else that they might be referring to there of you know of something else that they might be referring to the red. The primary have made notes in E&R or on a PROS file or something. I don't recall seeing them.  MS. O'BRIEN:  SiSGT. OSMOND:  SiSGT. OSMOND:  A. No, not specific, no.  Discovery of the procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion?  Page 58  SiSGT. OSMOND:  A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like. I condition that I meter have a was a conflict and on that I'm telepathic or anything but also a conflict.  A. Maybe in a larger unit, in our unit, like. I condition the processional backgrounds. Hanow a lo about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. Hanow a lo about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a great risk there. I know the members are conflict and on that I'm telepathic or anything but also a conflict and on the I'm telepathic or anything but also a conflict and on the way will self-identify if they have a conflict and it has a personal and/or professional intended in the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict an	Dece	mber 19, 2016			INTERVIEW OF S/SG1. KENT OSMOND
2 Q. Any other—did you investigate any other potential avenues of conflict? 3 Row, I haven't been sure exactly what ASIRT has been referring to there. You're saying that you kind of in general—you didn't has been referring to there. You're saying that you kind of in general—you didn't has been referring to there. You're saying that you kind of in general—you didn't has been referring to there. You're saying that you kind of in general—you didn't has been referring to there of you kind of in general—you didn't has been referring to there of you kind of in general—you didn't has been referring to there of you kind of in general—you didn't has been referring to there of you kind what they're referring to there of you kind what they're referring to there of you kind what they in the you're referring to there of you kind what they're referring to in the you're professional that what they're referring to in the you're hand. I have have a wood have had a personal inked to have a comment as to have the members. I know they and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  MS. O'BRIEN:  1 SYSCT. OSMOND:  1 SYSCT. OSMOND:  2 SYSCT. OSMOND:  2 SYSCT. OSMOND:  3 SYSCT. OSMOND:  4 A No, not specific, no.  2 MS. O'BRIEN:  5 SYSCT. OSMOND:  5 SYSCT. OSMOND:  6 A No, not specific, no.  9 Q. Okay. Should there be a more established a procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion?  1 SYSCT. OSMOND:  1 SYSCT. OSMOND:  2 SYSCT. OSMOND:  3 SYSCT. OSMOND:  4 A Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like 1 didn't feel that there was a general risk didn't feel that there was a general risk didn't feel that there was a comflet and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also 1 mean, MCU members know that they—and	,	MC OIDDIE	Page 57	,	Page 59
Systr. OSMOND:   Syst	1			1
4 SSGT. OSMOND: A Outside of being family friends with the Dunphys, Inean, that was my concern primarily was Smyth and the Dunphys, right.  8 MS. O'BRIEN: 9 Q. Okay. So you asked about Smyth and the Dunphys, right. 10 SSGT. OSMOND: 11 SSGT. OSMOND: 12 A. No, just Smyth. 13 MS. O'BRIEN: 14 Q. You just asked about Smyth? 15 SSGT. OSMOND: 16 A. Yeah. 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 Q. Okay. But you didn't take any notes of this? 19 SSGT. OSMOND: 20 SSGT. OSMOND: 21 A. No, not specific, no. 21 A. No, not specific, no. 22 MS. O'BRIEN: 23 Q. Okay. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 25 Page 58 26 SSGT. OSMOND: 27 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I professional backgrounds. I know a lot that I'm telepathic or anything but also about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a genat risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lot that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  10 MS. O'BRIEN: 11 May or mote and page four of the ASIR T report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to isolate the impact of the conflict." 11 In mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I den't see it in my notes.  12 MS. O'BRIEN: 13 MS. O'BRIEN: 14 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 MS. O'BRIEN: 16 MS. O'BRIEN: 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 MS. O'BRIEN: 19 MS. O'BRIEN: 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 MS. O'BRIEN: 22 MS. O'BRIEN: 23 MS. O'BRIEN: 24 MS. O'BRIEN: 25 MS. O'BRIEN: 26 MS. O'BRIEN: 27 MS. O'BRIEN: 28 MS. O'BRIEN: 29 MS. O'BRIEN: 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 MS. O'BRIEN: 22 MS. O'BRIEN: 23 MS.		Ų.	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
5 A. Outside of being family friends with the Dunphys, Imean, that was my concern primarily was Smyth and the Dunphys, right.  8 MS. OBRIEN:  9 Q. Okay. So you asked about Smyth and the Dunphys?  10 S/SGT. OSMOND:  11 S/SGT. OSMOND:  12 A. No, just Smyth.  13 MS. OBRIEN:  13 MS. OBRIEN:  14 Q. You just asked about Smyth?  15 S/SGT. OSMOND:  16 A. Yeah.  17 MS. OBRIEN:  18 Q. Okay. But you didn't take any notes of this?  19 S/SGT. OSMOND:  10 S/SGT. OSMOND:  11 MS. OBRIEN:  12 A. No, just you didn't take any notes of this?  13 MS. OBRIEN:  14 Q. Okay. But you didn't take any notes of this?  15 S/SGT. OSMOND:  16 A. Yeah.  17 MS. OBRIEN:  18 Q. Okay. But you didn't take any notes of this?  20 S/SGT. OSMOND:  21 A. No, not specific, no.  22 MS. OBRIEN:  23 Q. Okay. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion?  24 procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion?  25 MS. OBRIEN:  26 S/SGT. OSMOND:  27 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal lives and I fel I would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they rereferring to there or do you know of something else that they might be referring to there or do you know of something else that they might be referring to there or do you know of something else that they might be referring to there or do you know of something else that they might be referring to there or do you know of something else that they might be referring to there or do you know of something else that they might be referring to in the treferring to in there, other han I may have made notes in E&RR or on a PROS file or an a PROS file o		C/CCT OCM
6 Dunphys, Imean, that was my concern primarily was Smyth and the Dunphys, right. 8 MS. O'BRIEN: 9 Q. Okay. So you asked about Smyth and the Dunphys? 11 S/SGT. OSMOND: 12 A. No, just Smyth. 13 MS. O'BRIEN: 14 Q. You just asked about Smyth? 15 S/SGT. OSMOND: 16 A. Yeah. 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 Q. O'Kay. But you didn't take any notes of this? 19 S/SGT. OSMOND: 10 S/SGT. OSMOND: 11 S/SGT. OSMOND: 12 A. No, not specific, no. 13 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 S/SGT. OSMOND: 16 A. Yeah. 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 Q. O'Kay. But you didn't take any notes of this? 19 S/SGT. OSMOND: 20 S/SGT. OSMOND: 21 A. No, not specific, no. 22 MS. O'BRIEN: 23 Q. O'Kay. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 24 MS. O'BRIEN: 25 S/SGT. OSMOND: 26 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also be they will self-identify if they have a conflict and they will self-identify if they have a conflict and report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy" and the conflict amount of the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation". 24 SSGT. OSMOND: 25 SSGT. OSMOND: 26 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and I have a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  27 SSGT. OSMOND: 28 SSGT. OSMOND: 29 A. Clearly if they said that, it's in the file. Imean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  29 Go mentioned to people. Is that what they're referring to there or do you know of something else that they might be referring to?  No. O'RAILEN:  SYSGT. OSMOND:  A. No, just Smyth.  SYSGT. OSMOND:  A. No, just Smyth.  SYSGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  O. O'Ray. But you didn't take any notes of this?  SYSGT. OSMOND:  SYSGT. OSMOND:  A. No, not specific, no.  SYSGT. OSMOND:  No. OBRIEN:  O. O'Ray. But you didn't take any notes of this?  SYSGT. OSMOND:  SYSGT. OSMOND:  A. No, not specific, no.  O. O'Ray. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion?  Page 58  SYSGT. OSMOND:  A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, lik: I didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lo about their personal lives and I fell for would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also professional backgrounds. I know a lo about their personal lives and I fell the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lo about their personal lives and I fell the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lo about their personal lives and I fell the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lo about their personal lives and I fell the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lo about their personal lives and I fell the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lo about their personal lives and I fell the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lo about their personal lives and I fell the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lo about their personal lives and I fell the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lo about their personal lives and I fell the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lo about their personal lives and I fell the members. I know the memb	I .	A.
8 MS. O'BRIEN: 10	1			7
9 Q. Okay. So you asked about Smyth and the Dumphys? 10 Dumphys? 11 S/SGT. OSMOND: 12 A. No, just Smyth. 13 MS. O'BRIEN: 14 Q. You just asked about Smyth? 15 S/SGT. OSMOND: 16 A. Yeah. 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 Q. Okay. But you didn't take any notes of this? 19 yeah. 19 whis? 20 S/SGT. OSMOND: 21 A. No, not specific, no. 21 A. No, not specific, no. 22 MS. O'BRIEN: 23 Q. Okay. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 25 S/SGT. OSMOND: 26 S/SGT. OSMOND: 27 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they- and they will self-identify if they have a conflict. 28 MS. O'BRIEN: 39 G. Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMF or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the sets taken to isolate the impact of that conflict without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  WS. O'BRIEN: 30 G. Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMF or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the sets taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy" and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  29 SSGT. OSMOND: 30 Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMF or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of th		MS O'RDIEN		0
Dumphys?   10
11 S/SGT. OSMOND: 12 A. No, just Smyth. 13 MS. OBRIEN: 14 Q. You just asked about Smyth? 15 S/SGT. OSMOND: 16 A. Yeah. 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 Q. O'Kay. But you didn't take any notes of this? 19 S/SGT. OSMOND: 20 S/SGT. OSMOND: 21 A. No, not specific, no. 22 MS. O'BRIEN: 23 Q. O'Kay. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 24 procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 25 S/SGT. OSMOND: 26 S/SGT. OSMOND: 27 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I didn't feel that there was a great risk there, it has now their professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal and/or how what they and they will self-identify if they have a conflict. 26 MS. O'BRIEN: 27 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members know their professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal and felt I would have known if there was a conflict and they will self-identify if they have a conflict. 28 MS. O'BRIEN: 39 I mean, MCU members know that they—and they will self-identify if they have a conflict. 30 Q. O'Kay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer. Tre recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  30 MSGT. OSMOND: 31 J theven't found them. 32 S/SGT. OSMOND: 4 A. Steve Burke may have made them, I don't know, but I can only speak to what I did and I mean, I don't have a comment as to— 34 S. O'BRIEN: 4 S/SGT. OSMOND: 5 A. No. 5 S/SGT. OSMOND: 6 A. No. 7 MS. O'BRIEN: 8 A. Occasional development and the procedure for checking conflict were noteworthy" and I thought you wight to were noteworthy" and I thought you wight to were noteworth		Q.	• •
12 A. No, just Smyth. 13 MS. O'BRIEN: 14 Q. You just asked about Smyth? 15 S/SGT. OSMOND: 16 A. Yeah. 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 Q. Okay. But you didn't take any notes of this? 18 Q. Okay. But you didn't take any notes of this? 20 S/SGT. OSMOND: 21 A. No, not specific, no. 22 MS. O'BRIEN: 23 Q. Okay. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 24 procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 25 S/SGT. OSMOND: 26 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I a didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they and they will self-identify if they have a conflict. 26 MS. O'BRIEN: 27 O'Cay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of intentional the integrity of the investigation". 28 A. Clearly if they said that, it's in the file. 29 I mean if's not a comment as to-ver and they will self-identify or comment as to-ver and they will self-identify if they have a comflict. 30 A. No. 31 A. Keve Burke may have made them. 32 MS. O'BRIEN: 33 G. D'Ray. I nord a targer unit. In our unit, like I were noteworthy" and I thought you might be able to shed some light on that for me, but you"re not able to? 32 S/SGT. OSMOND: 33 A. Keve Burke may have made them, I don't know, but I can only speak to what I did and I mean, I don't have a comment as to-ver and I mean, I don't have a comment as to-ver and I mean if son't accomment as to-ver and the to intend the stage of the control of the stage of the stag		S/SGT_OSM	1 *
13
14   Q. Vou just asked about Smyth?   14   E&R or on a PROS file or something. I don't recall. They're not in my notebook. I don't recalls eeing them.   16   don't recalls eeing them.   16   don't recalls eeing them.   17   MS. O'BRIEN:   17   MS. O'BRIEN:   18   Q. Okay. But you didn't take any notes of this?   19   S/SGT. OSMOND:   20   S/SGT. OSMOND:   21   A. No, not specific, no.   21   A. No, not specific, no.   21   A. No, not specific, no.   22   MS. O'BRIEN:   22   MS. O'BRIEN:   23   Q. Okay. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion?   25   MS. O'BRIEN:   26   MS. O'BRIEN:   27   MS. O'BRIEN:   28   Q. What that means, and obviously I know you didn't author the report, but it says "steps of taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy" and I thought you might be able to shed some light on that for me, but you're not able to?   S/SGT. OSMOND:   28   MS. O'BRIEN:   29   MS. O'BRIEN:   20   MS. O'BRIEN:   20   MS. O'BRIEN:   21   MS. O'BRIEN:   21   MS. O'BRIEN:   22   MS. O'BRIEN:   23   MS. O'BRIEN:   24   MS. O'BRIEN:   25   MS. O'BRIEN:   26   MS. O'BRIEN:   27   MS. O'BRIEN:   28   MS. O'BRIEN:   29   MS. O'BRIEN:
15   S/SGT. OSMOND:   16   A. Yeah.   16   don't recall seeing them.	1
16 A. Yeah. 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 Q. O'kay. But you didn't take any notes of this? 20 S/SGT. OSMOND: 21 A. No, not specific, no. 22 MS. O'BRIEN: 23 Q. O'kay. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 24 procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 25 S/SGT. OSMOND: 26 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I didn't feel that there was a great risk didn't feel that there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also loss about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also loss are conflict. 26 A. No. 27 Was o'BRIEN: 28 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I were noteworthy" and I thought you might be able to shed some light on that for me, but you're not able to? 29 S/SGT. OSMOND: 30 S/SGT. OSMOND: 40 Vhat that means, and obviously I know you didn't author the report, but it says 'steps 41 Varient of the tought you might be able to shed some light on that for me, but you're not able to? 42 S/SGT. OSMOND: 43 S/SGT. OSMOND: 44 Varient of the were noteworthy" and I thought you might be able to shed some light on that for me, but you're not able to? 45 S/SGT. OSMOND: 46 A. No. 47 A. Steve Burke may have made them, I don't know, but I can only speak to what I did and I mean, I don't have a comment as to - MS. O'BRIEN: 48 OBRIEN: 59 Page 58 50 VBRIEN: 50 VBRIEN: 50 VBRIEN: 50 VBRIEN: 50 VBRIEN: 51 VBRIEN: 51 VBRIEN: 51 VBRIEN: 51 VBRIEN: 51 VBRIEN: 52 VBRIEN: 53 VBRIEN: 54 VBRIEN: 55 VBRIEN: 56 VBRIEN: 57 VBRIEN: 57 VBRIEN: 58 VBRIEN: 59 VBRIEN: 50 VBRIEN: 50 VBRIEN: 51 VBRIEN: 52 VBRIEN: 53 VBRIEN: 54 VBRIEN: 55 VBRIEN: 56 VBRIEN: 57 VBRIEN: 58 VBRIEN: 59 VBRIEN: 50 VBRIEN: 50 VBRIEN: 50 VBRIEN: 50 VBRIEN: 50 VBRIEN: 51 VBRIEN: 51 VBRIEN: 51 VBRIEN: 51 VBRIEN:		•
17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 Q. Okay. But you didn't take any notes of this? 20 S/SGT. OSMOND: 21 A. No, not specific, no. 21 MS. O'BRIEN: 22 MS. O'BRIEN: 23 Q. Okay. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 24 procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 25 Page 58 26 S/SGT. OSMOND: 27 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict and they will self-identify if they have a conflict and they will self-identify if they have a conflict and they will self-identify if they have a conflict and they will self-identify if they have a conflict and they will self-identify if they have a relationship with the subject officer. Tae recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy" and I thought you might be able to shed some light on that for me, but you're not able to?  5/SGT. OSMOND:  8 A. Steve Burke may have made them, I don't have a comment as to-  8 MS. O'BRIEN:  9 Laken to isolate the impact of taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy" and I thought you might be able to shed some light on that for me, but you're not able to?  5/SGT. OSMOND:  8 A. Steve Burke may have made them, I don't have a comment as to-  9 WS. O'BRIEN:  10 Laken to isolate the impact of taken to i					· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
18 Q. Okay. But you didn't take any notes of this? 20 S/SGT. OSMOND: 21 A. No, not specific, no. 22 MS. O'BRIEN: 23 Q. Okay. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 24 procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 25 Page 58 26 S/SGT. OSMOND: 27 Page 58 28 S/SGT. OSMOND: 28 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like 1 didn't feel that there was a great risk 4 there. I know the members. I know their 5 professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal lives and I felt 1 would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also 8 I mean, MCU members know that they – and 10 they will self-identify if they have a conflict. 29 Gkay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation". 29 S/SGT. OSMOND: 30 A. Steve Burke may have made them, I don't know, but I can only speak to what I did and I mean, I don't have a comment as to - Wand and I mean, I don't have a comment as to - Wand and I mean, I don't have a comment as to - Wand and the integrity of the investigation". 31 MS. O'BRIEN: 32	1
19 S/SGT. OSMOND: 20 S/SGT. OSMOND: 21 A. No, not specific, no. 22 MS. O'BRIEN: 23 Q. Okay. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 24 procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 25 objects of the didn't feel that there was a great risk didn't feel that there was a conflict and they will self-identify if they have a conflict and they will self-identify if they have a conflict. 26 Cookay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation". 27 S/SGT. OSMOND: 28 A. Steve Burke may have made them, I don't know, but I can only speak to what I did and I mean, I don't have a comment as to- 29 MS. O'BRIEN: 29 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like 1 2 2 4 2 4 2 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4	1
20 S/SGT. OSMOND: 21 A. No, not specific, no. 22 MS. O'BRIEN: 23 Q. Okay. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion? 24 Page 58 25 S/SGT. OSMOND: 26 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict. 26 Conflict. 27 MS. O'BRIEN: 28 Q. What that means, and obviously I know you didn't author the report, but it says "steps Page 60 taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy" and I thought you might be able to shed some light on that for me, but you're not able to? 29 S/SGT. OSMOND: 30 S/SGT. OSMOND: 41 taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy" and I thought you might be able to shed some light on that for me, but you're not able to? 51 S/SGT. OSMOND: 52 S/SGT. OSMOND: 53 S/SGT. OSMOND: 54 A. No. 55 ORAILEN: 55 CO. Okay. 55 S/SGT. OSMOND: 55 S/SGT. OSMOND: 56 A. No. 57 No. O'BRIEN: 58 Q. Okay. 57 OSMOND: 58 S/SGT. OSMOND: 59 S/SGT. OSMOND: 50 ORAILEN: 50 ORAILEN: 51 The mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes. 56 ORAILEN: 57 OSMOND: 58 ORAILEN: 58 ORAILEN: 59 ORAILEN: 50 ORAILEN: 50 ORAILEN: 50 ORAILEN: 51 ORAILEN: 51 ORAILEN: 52 ORAILEN: 53 ORAILEN: 54 ORAILEN: 55 ORAILEN: 56 ORAILEN: 57 ORAILEN: 58 ORAILEN: 59 ORAILEN: 50 ORAILEN: 50 ORAILEN: 50 ORAILEN: 51 ORAILEN: 51 ORAILEN: 51 ORAILEN: 52 ORAILEN: 53 ORAILEN: 54 ORAILEN: 55 ORAILEN: 56 ORAILEN: 57 ORAILEN: 58 ORAILEN: 59 ORAILEN: 50 ORAILEN: 50 ORAILEN: 50 ORAILEN: 51 ORAILEN: 51 ORAILEN: 51 ORAILEN: 52 ORAILEN: 53 ORAILEN: 54 ORAILEN: 55 ORAILEN: 56 ORAILEN: 57 ORAILEN: 58 ORAILEN: 58 ORAILEN: 59 ORAILEN: 50 ORAILEN: 50 ORAILEN: 50 ORAILEN: 51 ORAILEN: 51 ORAILEN: 51 ORAILEN: 52 ORAILEN: 53	1
A. No, not specific, no.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion?  Page 58  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like 1 didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a load about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Page 58  I S/SGT. OSMOND:  A Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like 1 there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a load about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  MS. O'BRIEN:  A Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like 1 there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a load about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  MS. O'BRIEN:  A No. O'BRIEN:  A No. O'BRIEN:  A No. O'BRIEN:  B Q. Okay.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A Clearly if they said that, it's in the file.  I mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  A No. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  A No. O'BRIEN:		S/SGT. OSM	OND:		A. Steve Burke may have made them, I don't
Q. Okay. Should there be a more established procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion?  Page 58  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. What that means, and obviously I know you didn't author the report, but it says "steps  Page 60  1 taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy" and I thought you might be able to shed some light on that for me, but you're not able to?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. No.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Clearly if they said that, it's in the file.  I mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:	21	A.	No, not specific, no.	21 procedure for checking conflicts in your opinion?  Page 58  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".	22	MS. O'BRIEN	N:	22	I mean, I don't have a comment as to -
Page 58  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like 1 didn't feel that there was a great risk 4 there. I know the members. I know their 5 professional backgrounds. I know a low about their personal lives and I felt I 7 would have known if there was a conflict and 8 not that I'm telepathic or anything but also 9 I mean, MCU members know that they – and 10 they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  MS. O'BRIEN:	1	Q.	Okay. Should there be a more established	23	MS. O'BRIEN:
Page 58  1 S/SGT. OSMOND: 2 A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I 3 didn't feel that there was a great risk 4 there. I know the members. I know their 5 professional backgrounds. I know a lot 6 about their personal lives and I felt I 7 would have known if there was a conflict and 8 not that I'm telepathic or anything but also 9 I mean, MCU members know that they – and 10 they will self-identify if they have a 11 conflict. 12 MS. O'BRIEN: 13 Q. Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT 14 report, which I believe your counsel has 15 there, it says that "steps were taken to 16 identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who 17 had a personal and/or professional 18 relationship with the subject officer. The 19 recognition of the potential conflict and 20 the steps taken to isolate the impact of 21 that conflict were noteworthy and I thought you might be 22 able to shed some light on that for me, but 23 you're not able to? 25 S/SGT. OSMOND:  5 S/SGT. OSMOND:  6 A. No.  6 MS. O'BRIEN:  9 Q. Okay.  10 A. Clearly if they said that, it's in the file. 11 I mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  13 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 MS. O'BRIEN: 16 MS. O'BRIEN: 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 O'BRIEN: 19 recognition of the potential conflict and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation". 20 Integrity of the investigation". 21 MS. O'BRIEN: 22 MSGT. OSMOND:			procedure for checking conflicts in your
S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lone about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy" and I thought you might be able to shed some light on that for me, but you're not able to?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Clearly if they said that, it's in the file. I mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O	25		opinion?	25	didn't author the report, but it says "steps
A. Maybe in a larger unit. In our unit, like I didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal lives and I fel I would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".					· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · didn't feel that there was a great risk there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  3 able to shed some light on that for me, but you're not able to? S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  A. No. MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Clearly if they said that, it's in the file. I mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRI	1			1
there. I know the members. I know their professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  4 you're not able to?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. No. MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. I mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  13 S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN: 14 S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN: 15 S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Clearly if they said that, it's in the file. I mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  15 S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  16 S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  17 See it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  18 SO'BRIEN:  19 SO'BRIEN:  10 SO'BRIEN:  11 SO'BRIEN:  12 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  13 SO'BRIEN:  14 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  15 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  16 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  17 SO OKAY.  MS. O'BRIEN:  18 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  19 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  10 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  11 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  12 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  13 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  14 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  15 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  16 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  17 SO OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  18 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  19 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  10 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  11 SO OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  12 SO'SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  13 SO OSMOND:		A.
5 professional backgrounds. I know a lot about their personal lives and I felt I would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  10 they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  11 conflict.  12 MS. O'BRIEN: 13 Q. Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  5 S/SGT. OSMOND:  6 A. No.  7 MS. O'BRIEN:  8 Q. Okay.  9 S/SGT. OSMOND:  10 A. Clearly if they said that, it's in the file.  11 I mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  12 MS. O'BRIEN:  13 See it in my notes.  14 MS. O'BRIEN:  15 MS. O'BRIEN:  16 identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  20 the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  21 that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  22 demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  23 integrity of the investigation".
about their personal lives and I felt I  would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT  A. Clearly if they said that, it's in the file. I mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O					· would have known if there was a conflict and not that I'm telepathic or anything but also I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  I mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  I mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  M	1
8 not that I'm telepathic or anything but also 9 I mean, MCU members know that they – and 10 they will self-identify if they have a 11 conflict. 12 MS. O'BRIEN: 13 Q. Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT 14 report, which I believe your counsel has 15 there, it says that "steps were taken to 16 identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who 17 had a personal and/or professional 18 relationship with the subject officer. The 19 recognition of the potential conflict and 10 A. Clearly if they said that, it's in the file. 11 I mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes. 14 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 MS. O'BRIEN: 16 identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional 17 relationship with the subject officer. The 19 recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of 20 the steps taken to isolate the impact of 21 that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation". 22 demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation". 23 S/SGT. OSMOND:				6
I mean, MCU members know that they – and they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  I conflict.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Clearly if they said that, it's in the file.  I mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  15  16  17  18  18  19  19  20  20  21  21  22  23  35/SGT. OSMOND:  24  S/SGT. OSMOND:	1			/
they will self-identify if they have a conflict.  In mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  The see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  The steps taken to isolate officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and that conflict were noteworthy and that conflict were noteworthy and comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  The see it in my notes.  The see it in my note			, ,
11 conflict. 12 MS. O'BRIEN: 13 Q. Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT 14 report, which I believe your counsel has 15 there, it says that "steps were taken to 16 identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who 17 had a personal and/or professional 18 relationship with the subject officer. The 19 recognition of the potential conflict and 19 the steps taken to isolate the impact of 20 that conflict were noteworthy and 21 demonstrative of an intent to maintain the 22 integrity of the investigation". 23 S/SGT. OSMOND:  11 I mean it's not a comment you would make without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  14 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 I MS. O'BRIEN: 16 I MS. O'BRIEN: 17
MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  12 without anything to back it up. But I don't see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  15 16 17 18 18 19 19 10 20 20 21 21 22 23 24 24 25/SGT. OSMOND:
Q. Okay. I noted at page four of the ASIRT report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  13 see it in my notes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  14 MS. O'BRIEN:  15 IIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIII		MS O'RRIEN report, which I believe your counsel has there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  MS. O'BRIEN:  Has Mas MS. O'BRIEN:  Has Mas Mas Mas Mas Mas Mas Mas Mas Mas M
there, it says that "steps were taken to identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the and the steps taken to maintain the steps taken to maintain the steps taken to maintain the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and steps taken to maintain the steps taken to isolate the impact of steps take		٧٠ identify any RCMP or RNC police officer who had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and professional the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the demonstrative of the investigation.
had a personal and/or professional relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  24 S/SGT. OSMOND:	1 relationship with the subject officer. The recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  S/SGT. OSMOND:
recognition of the potential conflict and the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  19 20 21 22 23 24 25/SGT. OSMOND: 22 24	1
the steps taken to isolate the impact of that conflict were noteworthy and demonstrative of an intent to maintain the integrity of the investigation".  20 21 22 23 24 28/SGT. OSMOND: 20 21 22 23 24 24 that conflict were noteworthy and 21 22 demonstrative of an intent to maintain the 23 integrity of the investigation". 23 24 S/SGT. OSMOND: 24 22 demonstrative of an intent to maintain the 23 integrity of the investigation". 24 S/SGT. OSMOND: 22 23 24 24 24 24 24 24 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25
24 S/SGT. OSMOND: 24	22			22
25 A. Um-hm. 25
	1 25	Δ	Um-hm.	25

If their role was otherwise, I mean can tell me what their role was, I'll tell you what my reaction is.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Well, their role was to transport Constable Sow, which is a constant of the constant of	1			INTERVIEW OF S/SG1. KENT OSMOND
2 can tell me what their role was, I'll tell 3 you what my reaction is. 4 MS. O'BRIEN: 5 Q. Well, their role was to transport Constable 6 Smyth to Holyrood detachment. 7 SSGT. OSMOND: 8 A. They should have had notes on that. 9 MS. O'BRIEN: 10 Q. O'kay. 11 MR. FREEMAN: 11 MR. FREEMAN: 12 Q. Yeah. 13 MS. O'BRIEN: 14 Q. Yeah. 15 MS. O'BRIEN: 16 Q. O, And he did have a notepad. 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 Q. O'h, I know, I know, yeah. So in the notes, should Constable in that case have been recording what Constable in	1 1			Page 115
you what my reaction is.  4 MS. O'BRIEN:  5 Q. Well, their role was to transport Constable 6 Smyth to Holyrood detachment.  5 SAGT. OSMOND: 8 A. They should have had notes on that. 9 MS. O'BRIEN: 10 Q. Okay. 11 MR. FREFMAN: 11 the Charter, it would have severely was a suspect or not a suspect and made a decision on talking to him, with or without the Charter, it would have severely complicated things later because he may not have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. proper police tactices, as I have worked with police officers over the past of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 18 SSGT. OSMOND: 20 Cokay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 21 SSGT. OSMOND: 22 SSGT. OSMOND: 33 SSGT. OSMOND: 44 SSGT. OSMOND: 45 SAGT. OSMOND: 45 SAGT. OSMOND: 46 SSGT. OSMOND: 47 SSGT. OSMOND: 48 SSGT. OSMOND: 49 Was a suspect or not a suspect and made a decision on talking to him, with or without the Charter, it would have severely complicated things later because he may not have been in the know that he needed to be and if that was me in that situation. 46 MS. O'BRIEN: 47 ORIEN: 48 SOGT. OSMOND: 49 Was a suspect or not a suspect and made a decision on talking to him, with or without the Charter, it would have severely complicated things later because he may not have been in the know that he needed to be and if that was me in that situation. 49 Was original had made the decision that Joe Smyth have been hat file was a suspect or not a suspect and made a decision on talking to him, with or without the Charter, it would have severely complicated things later because he may not have the decision that loes of the complication on talking to him, with or without the Charter, it would have suspect and if the was a suspect or not a suspect and in decision on talking to him, with or without the Charter, it would have suspect and the decision that have been have been hat be an interest. 49 Was O'BRIEN: 40 O, Ok	1 1	If their role was otherwise, I mean	1	A. Well, he's come into custody, escort or
4 MS. O'BRIEN: 5 Q. Well, their role was to transport Constable 6 Smyth to Holyrood detachment. 7 S/SGT. OSMOND: 8 A. They should have had notes on that. 9 MS. O'BRIEN: 10 Q. Okay. 11 MR. FREEMAN: 12 Q. You're talking about Constable 11 complication of the Charter, it would have severely complicated things later because he may not have been in the know that severely complicated things later because he may not have been in the know that eleded to be and if that was me in that situation, I would have taken notes on what was said and one, his deferted that conversation. 16 Q. And he did have a notepad. 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 Q. Oh, I know, I know, yeah. So in the notes should Constable 11 in that case have been recording what Constable 12 should Constable 13 would have taken notes on what was said at done, his demanour, his long, whatever 14 done, his demanour, his long, whatever 15 done have been in the know that god enemanour, his long, whatever 16 done, his demanour, his long, whatever 17 left was required, but I too would have deflected that conversation. 18 So'GT. OSMOND: 22 So'GT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. 24 MS. O'BRIEN: 25 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable 12 said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events. 26 MS. O'BRIEN: 27 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand trey're quiet keen to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 28 S'GGT. OSMOND: 29 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 30 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 31 S'GGT. OSMOND: 32 A. Yes. 33 A. Yes. 34 MS. O'BRIEN: 35 Q. O'Cay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 31 S'GGT. OSMOND: 32 A. Yes. 33 A. Yes. 34 MS. O'BRIEN: 35 Q. O'Cay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you k	2	can tell me what their role was, I'll tell	2	otherwise, of a person that's just taken a
4 MS. O'BRIEN: 5 Q. Well, their role was to transport Constable 6 Smyth to Holyrood detachment. 7 S/SGT. OSMOND: 8 A. They should have had notes on that. 9 MS. O'BRIEN: 10 Q. Okay. 11 MR. FREEMAN: 12 Q. You're talking about Constable 11 complication of the Charter, it would have severely complicated things later because he may not have been in the know that severely complicated things later because he may not have been in the know that eleded to be and if that was me in that situation, I would have taken notes on what was said and one, his deferted that conversation. 16 Q. And he did have a notepad. 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 Q. Oh, I know, I know, yeah. So in the notes should Constable 11 in that case have been recording what Constable 12 should Constable 13 would have taken notes on what was said at done, his demanour, his long, whatever 14 done, his demanour, his long, whatever 15 done have been in the know that god enemanour, his long, whatever 16 done, his demanour, his long, whatever 17 left was required, but I too would have deflected that conversation. 18 So'GT. OSMOND: 22 So'GT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. 24 MS. O'BRIEN: 25 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable 12 said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events. 26 MS. O'BRIEN: 27 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand trey're quiet keen to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 28 S'GGT. OSMOND: 29 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 30 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 31 S'GGT. OSMOND: 32 A. Yes. 33 A. Yes. 34 MS. O'BRIEN: 35 Q. O'Cay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 31 S'GGT. OSMOND: 32 A. Yes. 33 A. Yes. 34 MS. O'BRIEN: 35 Q. O'Cay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you k	3	you what my reaction is.	3	life of another person. His desire to
5 Q. Well, their role was to transport Constable 6 Smyth in Holyrood detachment. 7 SYSGT. OSMOND: 8 A. They should have had notes on that. 9 MS. ORRIEN: 10 Q. Okay. 11 MR. FREEMAN: 12 Q. Yeah. 13 MS. ORRIEN: 14 Q. Yeah. 15 MR. FREEMAN: 16 Q. And he did have a notepad. 17 MS. ORRIEN: 18 Q. Oh, I know, I know, yeah. So in the notes, should Constable in that case have been recording what Constable in the was a problem of the was a problem of the was a cively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  SYSGT. OSMOND:  10	1 .		ı
Smyth to Holyrood detachment.  7 S/SGT. OSMOND:  8 A. They should have had notes on that.  9 MS. O'BRIEN:  10 Q. Okay.  11 MR. FREEMAN:  12 Q. You're talking about Constable 7:  13 MS. O'BRIEN:  14 Q. Yeah.  15 MR. FREEMAN:  16 Q. And he did have a notepad.  17 MS. O'BRIEN:  18 Q. Oh, I know, I know, yeah. So in the notes, should Constable 16:  19 been recording what Constable 17:  11 said that he was, you know, trying to 2 dissuade or keep Constable 23:  22 S/SGT. OSMOND:  3 SSGT. OSMOND:  4 SSGT. OSMOND:  5 A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  4 MS. O'BRIEN:  7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand trey're quite keen to record spontaneous uttrances. you know.  12 S/SGT. OSMOND:  3 S/SGT. OSMOND:  4 MS. O'BRIEN:  7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand trey're quite keen to record spontaneous uttrances. you know.  12 S/SGT. OSMOND:  13 A. Yes.  24 MS. O'BRIEN:  7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand trey're quite keen to record spontaneous uttrances.  12 S/SGT. OSMOND:  13 A. Yes.  14 MS. O'BRIEN:  7 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  18 S/SGT. OSMOND:  19 A. Yes.  20 And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation and that's why he ddin't do it or that's way he was approaching it that way.  21 S/SGT. OSMOND:  22 S/SGT. OSMOND:  33 A. Yes.  44 MS. O'BRIEN:  55 A. Um-hm.  56 MS. O'BRIEN:  7 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have thought that would have thought that would have the past of his training, to record spontaneous utterances.  22 A. Yes.  23 A. Yes.  24 MS. O'BRIEN:  5 A. Um-hm.  5 MS. O'BRIEN:  5 A. Um-hm.  5 MS. O'BRIE	1		ı
7   Siggt. OSMOND: 8   A.   They should have had notes on that. 9   MS. O'BRIEN: 10   Q.   Okay. 11   MR. FREEMAN: 12   Q.   You're talking about Constable   ? 13   MS. O'BRIEN: 14   Q.   Yeah. 15   MR. FREEMAN: 16   Q.   And he did have a notepad. 17   MS. O'BRIEN: 18   Q.   Oh, I know, yeah. So in the notes, should Constable   in that case: have been recording what Constable   smrth was a suspect or not a suspect and made a decision on talking to him, with or without the Charter; it would have severely complicated things later because he may not and if that was me in that situation, I would have taken notes on what was said and done, his demeanour, his clothing, whatever life deflected that conversation. 16   Q.   And he did have a notepad. 17   MS. O'BRIEN: 18   Q.   Oh, I know, Yeah. So in the notes, should Constable   in that case; have been recording what Constable Smr/th was a suspect or not a suspect and made a decision on talking to him, with or without the Charter; it would have taken notes on what was said and done, his demeanour, his clothing, whatever life dense, in the constable smr/th was a suspect or not a suspect and made a decision on talking to him, with or without the Charter; it would have severely complicated things later because he may not and if that was me in that sold made in that sold have dedicted that conversation. 18   O.   Oh, I know, I know, yeah. So in the notes, should Constable Smr/th was a suspect or not a suspect and made a decision on talking to him, with or without the Charter; it would have taken notes on what was said and done, his demeanour, his clothing, whatever life dense, have required the was required, but to would have deflected that conversation.  19   O.   Okay. And in this case, Constable Smr/th or made ferom that Joe Smr/th was a suspect or not a suspect and made a decision on talking to him, without the Charter; was a suspect or not as uspect and made a decision on talking to him, without the Charter was a suspect or not asuspect and made and if that was rema	1 .		l .	v
8 A. They should have had notes on that. 9 MS. O'BRIEN: 10 Q. Okay. 11 MR. FREEMAN: 12 Q. You're talking about Constable ?? 13 MS. O'BRIEN: 14 Q. Yeah. 15 MR. FREEMAN: 16 Q. And he did have a notepad. 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 Q. Oh, I know, I know, yeah. So in the notes, should Constable in that case have been recording what Constable in that case have deflected that conversation.  MS. O'BRIEN:  19 Siggt O Sway. And in this case, Constable in that case have with a said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable in that case have worked with police officers over the past in the case of the			ı
9   Was a suspect or not a suspect and made a decision on talking to him, with or without 1 the Charter, it would have severely complicated things later because he may not have been in the know that he needed to be with the Charter, it would have severely complicated things later because he may not have been in the know that he needed to be with the Charter, it would have taken notes on what was said at and if that was me in that situation, I would have taken notes on what was said at would have taken notes on what was said at would have taken notes on what was said at would have taken notes on what was said at would have taken notes on what was said at would have taken notes on what was said at would have taken notes on what was said at would have taken notes on what was said at would have taken notes on what was said at would have taken notes on what was said at would have taken notes on what was said at the constable what Constable was asying?    Very	1
10	1		ı	•
11	1		ı
12	10	Q. Okay.	10	decision on talking to him, with or without
13 MS. O'BRIEN: 14 Q. Yeah. 15 MR. FREEMAN: 16 Q. And he did have a notepad. 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 Q. Oh, I know, I know, yeah. So in the notes, should Constable in that case have been recording what Constable Smr/th was saying? 20 been recording what Constable Smr/th was saying? 21 saying? 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. 24 MS. O'BRIEN: 25 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable Ms. O'BRIEN: 26 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable Ms. O'BRIEN: 27 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable Ms. O'BRIEN: 28 A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes. 29 worked with police officers over the past oworked with police o	11	MR. FREEMAN:	11	the Charter, it would have severely
13	12	Q. You're talking about Constable?	12	complicated things later because he may not
14	13		13
15   Would have taken notes on what was said ar done, his demeanour, his clothing, whatever if If I felt was required, but I too would have deflected that conversation.   16	1		ı
16		•	ı	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 Q. Oh, I know, I know, yeah. So in the notes, should Constable in that case have been recording what Constable Smyth was a saying? 21 S/SGT. OSMOND: 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. 24 MS. O'BRIEN: 25 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable Ms. O'BRIEN: 26 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable Ms. O'BRIEN: 27 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable Ms. O'BRIEN: 28 MS. O'BRIEN: 29 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable Ms. O'BRIEN: 29 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable Ms. O'BRIEN: 20 Q. Okay. 21 S/SGT. OSMOND: 22 A. Because I would not want to have caused a Charter issue later on, due to my misunderstanding of the situation. 29 Ms. O'BRIEN: 20 Q. Okay. And I case have with going of the situation. 21 Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern. 22 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous uttrrances. 21 S/SGT. OSMOND: 22 A. Decause I would not want to have caused a Charter size later on, due to my misunderstanding of the situation. 23 S/SGT. OSMOND: 24 MS. O'BRIEN: 25 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous uttrrances. 26 S/SGT. OSMOND: 27 S/SGT. OSMOND: 28 S/SGT. OSMOND: 29 A. Um-hm. 29 Worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous uttrrances. 29 S/SGT. OSMOND: 21 S/SGT. OSMOND: 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. 24 Ws. O'BRIEN: 25 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 29 S/SGT. OSMOND: 20 A. You're it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really	1		l .
18    Q. Oh, I know, I know, yeah. So in the notes, should Constable   in that case have been recording what Constable   Smyth was 20   D. Okay.			ı should Constable in that case have been recording what Constable Smyth was 21 saying? 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. 24 MS. O'BRIEN: 25 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable 22 A. Because I would not want to have caused a Charter issue later on, due to my misunderstanding of the situation. 25 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable 25 MS. O'BRIEN:  Page 114 1 said that he was, you know, trying to 2 dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from 3 speaking about the events. 3 S/SGT. OSMOND: 5 A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes. 6 MS. O'BRIEN: 7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have 9 worked with police officers over the past 10 many years. I normally understand trey're 11 quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 12 S/SGT. OSMOND: 12 S/SGT. OSMOND: 13 A. Yes. 14 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would 16 have been part of his training, to record 17 spontaneous utterances, you know. 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was 22 essentially part of the investigation and 22 essentially part of the investigation and 22 essentially part of the investigation and 23 that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 24 was approaching it that way. 21 S/SGT. OSMOND: 22 A. Because I would not want to have caused a Charter is a breause I would not want to have caused a Charter is a breause I would not want to have caused a Charter is a breause I would not want to have caused a Charter is a breause I would not want to have caused a Charter is a breause I would not want to have caused a Charter is a breause I would not want to have caused a Charter is a breause I would not want to have caused a Charter is a breause I would not want to have caused a Charter is a breause I would not want to have caused a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND: 3 C. Can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter ocner. 4 S/SGT. OSMOND: 5 A. Um-hm. 6 MS. O'BRIEN: 7 Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just C			ı
been recording what Constable Sm/th was saying?    S/SGT. OSMOND:		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	ı
21 S/SGT. OSMOND: 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. 24 MS. O'BRIEN: 25 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable  Page 114  1 said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events. 4 S/SGT. OSMOND: 5 A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes. 6 MS. O'BRIEN: 7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand t vey're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 10 many years. I normally understand t vey're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 11 MS. O'BRIEN: 12 S/SGT. OSMOND: 13 A. Yes. 14 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation and that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 24 was approaching it that way. 21 S/SGT. OSMOND: 22 A. Because I would not want to have caused a Charter issue later on, due to my misunderstanding of the situation. 23 Charter issue later on, due to my misunderstanding of the situation. 24 MS. O'BRIEN: 25 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable Smyth speaking? 3 just Constable Smyth speaking? 4 Know his notebook is recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did. 4 MS. O'BRIEN: 4 Know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did. 4 Know his notebook is recording, but he's same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not? 5 S/SGT. OSMOND: 5 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in a situation a couple years back wh	1		ı
22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. 24 MS. O'BRIEN: 25 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable  Page 114  1 said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  4 S/SGT. OSMOND: 5 A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes. 6 MS. O'BRIEN: 7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 10 many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 11 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation and that's why he didn't do it or tha	20	been recording what Constable Smyth was	20
A. Yes.  24 MS. O'BRIEN:  Description  A. Yes.  Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable  Page 114  1 said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth firm speaking about the events.  4 S/SGT. OSMOND:  5 A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  6 MS. O'BRIEN:  7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand trey're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  12 S/SGT. OSMOND:  13 A. Yes.  14 MS. O'BRIEN:  15 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  18 S/SGT. OSMOND:  19 A. Yes.  20 MS. O'BRIEN:  11 Know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:  18 MS. O'BRIEN:  19 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  18 S/SGT. OSMOND:  19 A. Yes.  20 MS. O'BRIEN:  21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation and that's why he didn't do it or that's	21	saying?	21	S/SGT. OSMOND:
A. Yes.  24 MS. O'BRIEN:  25 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable  Page 114  1 said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  4 S/SGT. OSMOND:  5 A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  6 MS. O'BRIEN:  7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past unanny years. I normally understand trey're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  12 S/SGT. OSMOND:  13 A. Yes.  14 MS. O'BRIEN:  15 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  18 S/SGT. OSMOND:  19 A. Yes.  20 MS. O'BRIEN:  21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation and that's why he didn't do it or that's why h	22	S/SGT. OSMOND:	22	A. Because I would not want to have caused a
MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable  Page 114  1 said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from 3 speaking about the events.  4 S/SGT. OSMOND: 5 A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes. 6 MS. O'BRIEN: 7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 10 many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 11 MS. O'BRIEN: 12 S/SGT. OSMOND: 13 A. Yes. 14 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 16 MS. O'BRIEN: 17 Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable making him questions, just Constable smyth speaking? 16 S/SGT. OSMOND: 17 A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter sold on Concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND: 18 MS. O'BRIEN: 19 A. Yes. 10 Jun-hm. 11 MS. O'BRIEN: 11 Know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did. 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 MS. O'BRIEN: 19 Q. Okay. What if it was — would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not? 20 Okay. What if it was — would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not? 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation an and that's why he didn't do it or that's why he are a situation a couple years back where a		A. Yes.	23	Charter issue later on, due to my
25 Q. Okay. And in this case, Constable  Page 114  1 said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  4 S/SGT. OSMOND:  5 A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  6 MS. O'BRIEN:  7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  10 many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  12 S/SGT. OSMOND:  13 A. Yes.  14 MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  18 S/SGT. OSMOND:  19 A. Yes.  10 MS. O'BRIEN:  11 Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter sonce.  18 S/SGT. OSMOND:  19 A. You in the interval of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter sonce.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  10 Jese your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  11 A. Yes.  12 S/SGT. OSMOND:  13 A. Yes.  14 MS. O'BRIEN:  15 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record in made from memory. I really do believe that if if it was me, I would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:  15 Q. Okay. What if it was — would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not?  26 S/SGT. OSMOND:  27 S/SGT. OSMOND:  28 MS. O'BRIEN:  29 Okay. What if it was — would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not?  20 Okay. What if it was me, I would not have wanted to – I was in a situation a couple years back where a	1		ı	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Page 114  1 said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  4 S/SGT. OSMOND: 5 A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes. 6 MS. O'BRIEN: 7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past 10 many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 12 S/SGT. OSMOND: 12 S/SGT. OSMOND: 13 A. Yes. 14 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 16 MS. O'BRIEN: 17 Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable make sing him questions, just Constable make sing him questions, just Constable make sing him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking? 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 19 A. Yes. 20 Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 20 Okay. What if it was me, I would have done what he did. 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 21 Q. Okay. What if it was me, I would have done what he did. 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in a situation a couple years back where a	1		ı
1 said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events. 4 S/SGT. OSMOND: 5 A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes. 6 MS. O'BRIEN: 7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 12 S/SGT. OSMOND: 13 A. Yes. 14 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation and that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 24 was approaching it that way. 21 Lan certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern. 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 Lan certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern. 24 S/SGT. OSMOND: 25 A. Um-hm. 26 MS. O'BRIEN: 7 Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable Smyth speaking? 10 Just Constable Smyth speaking? 11 S/SGT. OSMOND: 12 A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did. 15 MS. O'BRIEN: 16 MS. O'BRIEN: 17 Land The many didn't was a police officer or not? 18 MS. O'BRIEN: 19 Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not? 20 S/SGT. OSMOND: 21 A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I was in a situation a couple years back where a			23
dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  4 S/SGT. OSMOND: 5 A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes. 6 MS. O'BRIEN: 7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 10 many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 11 S/SGT. OSMOND: 12 A. Yes. 13 because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did. 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation a ad that's why he didn't do it or that's why he a was approaching it that way. 22 was approaching it that way. 23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in a situation a couple years back where a		Page 114
speaking about the events.  4  S/SGT. OSMOND:  5	1 1		1
4 S/SGT. OSMOND: 5 A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes. 6 MS. O'BRIEN: 7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 10 many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 11 quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 12 S/SGT. OSMOND: 13 A. Yes. 14 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know. 16 S/SGT. OSMOND: 17 A. Yes. 18 what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable making him questions, just Constable smyth speaking? 19 A. Yes. 10 because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did. 18 MS. O'BRIEN: 19 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation and that's why he didn't do it or that's why he as a purposaching it that way.  4 S/SGT. OSMOND: 5 A. Um-hm. 6 MS. O'BRIEN: 7 Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable Smyth speaking?  5 S/SGT. OSMOND: 11 know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did. 18 MS. O'BRIEN: 19 Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not? 20 S/SGT. OSMOND: 21 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in a situation a couple years back where a	1	said that he was, you know, trying to	1	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively
5 A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes. 6 MS. O'BRIEN: 7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, 8 you know, proper police tactics, as I have 9 worked with police officers over the past 10 many years. I normally understand they're 11 quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 12 S/SGT. OSMOND: 13 A. Yes. 14 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would 16 have been part of his training, to record 17 spontaneous utterances, you know. 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 19 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was 22 essentially part of the investigation and 23 that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 24 was approaching it that way.  5 A. Um-hm. 6 MS. O'BRIEN: 7 Q. I see your – I take your point there. But 8 what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, 9 not Constable Smyth speaking, 10 aking im questions, 11 you're – it's a bit of a situation there too 12 hecause nothing's being recorded. I mean I 13 know his notebook is recording, but he's 15 driving and his notes then are going to be 16 made from memory. I really do believe that 17 if it was me, I would have done what he did. 18 MS. O'BRIEN: 19 Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the 20 same whether Constable Smyth was a police 21 officer or not? 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in 24 a situation a couple years back where a		said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from	ı	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter
6 MS. O'BRIEN: 7 Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, 8 you know, proper police tactics, as I have 9 worked with police officers over the past 10 many years. I normally understand they're 11 quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 12 S/SGT. OSMOND: 13 A. Yes. 14 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would 16 have been part of his training, to record 17 spontaneous utterances, you know. 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 19 A. Yes. 19 Q. Okay. What if it vas me, I would have done what he did. 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 19 Q. Okay. What if it was — would that be the 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. Okay. What if it was — would that be the 22 essentially part of the investigation and 23 that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 24 was approaching it that way. 26 MS. O'BRIEN: 27 Q. I see your — I take your point there. But 8 what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, 9 not Constable Smyth speaking, 10 not Constable Smyth speaking, 11 know his notebook is recording, but he's 12 driving and his notes then are going to be 13 made from memory. I really do believe that 14 if it was me, I would have done what he did. 15 S/SGT. OSMOND: 16 MS. O'BRIEN: 17 Q. I see your — I take your point there. But 18 what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, 10 not Constable Smyth speaking, 11 saking him questions, 12 S/SGT. OSMOND: 13 know his notebook is recording, but he's 15 driving and his notes then are going to be 16 made from memory. I really do believe that 17 if it was me, I would have done what he did. 18 MS. O'BRIEN: 19 Q. Okay. What if it was — would that be the 20 same whether Constable Smyth was a police 21 officer or not? 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to — I was in 24 a situation a couple years back where a	3	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.	3	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.
Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous uttεrances.	3	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND:	3 4	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:
8 you know, proper police tactics, as I have 9 worked with police officers over the past 10 many years. I normally understand they're 11 quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 12 S/SGT. OSMOND: 13 A. Yes. 14 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would 16 have been part of his training, to record 17 spontaneous utterances, you know. 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was 22 essentially part of the investigation and 23 that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 24 was approaching it that way.  8 what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, 9 not Constable Smyth speaking, 10 just Constable Smyth speaking, 11 s/SGT. OSMOND: 12 A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too 13 because nothing's being recorded. I mean I 14 know his notebook is recording, but he's 15 driving and his notes then are going to be 16 made from memory. I really do believe that 17 if it was me, I would have done what he did. 18 MS. O'BRIEN: 19 Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the 19 same whether Constable Smyth speaking, 20 objections, 21 S/SGT. OSMOND: 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in 24 a situation a couple years back where a	3 4	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND:	3 4	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:
8 you know, proper police tactics, as I have 9 worked with police officers over the past 10 many years. I normally understand they're 11 quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. 12 S/SGT. OSMOND: 13 A. Yes. 14 MS. O'BRIEN: 15 Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would 16 have been part of his training, to record 17 spontaneous utterances, you know. 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was 22 essentially part of the investigation and 23 that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 24 was approaching it that way.  8 what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, 9 not Constable Smyth speaking, 10 just Constable Smyth speaking, 11 s/SGT. OSMOND: 12 A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too 13 because nothing's being recorded. I mean I 14 know his notebook is recording, but he's 15 driving and his notes then are going to be 16 made from memory. I really do believe that 17 if it was me, I would have done what he did. 18 MS. O'BRIEN: 19 Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the 19 same whether Constable Smyth speaking, 20 objections, 21 S/SGT. OSMOND: 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in 24 a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.	3 4 5	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.
yorked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances. S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  Okay. So I would have thought that would spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  Okay. So I would have thought that would spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Okay. So I would have thought that would spontaneous utterances, you know.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Okay. What if it was — would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  Okay. What if it was — would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  A. You're — it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Okay. What if it was — would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes. I would not have wanted to — I was in a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5 6	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:	3 4 5	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:
many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Okay. What if it was — would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Okay. What if it was — would that be the same whether Constable Smyth speaking?  A. You're — it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I have been part of his training, to record if it was me, I would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Okay. What if it was — would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes. I would not have wanted to — I was in a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5 6 7	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was,	3 4 5 6 7	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.    S/SGT. OSMOND:   12	3 4 5 6 7 8	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have	3 4 5 6 7 8	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking,
12   S/SGT. OSMOND:   13   A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too   13   because nothing's being recorded. I mean I   14   know his notebook is recording, but he's   15   Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would   15   driving and his notes then are going to be   16   made from memory. I really do believe that   17   spontaneous utterances, you know.   18   S/SGT. OSMOND:   18   MS. O'BRIEN:   19   Q. Okay. What if it was — would that be the   20   same whether Constable Smyth was a police   21   Q. And but he said no one had told him he was   22   essentially part of the investigation and   23   that's why he didn't do it or that's why he   23   A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in   24   a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5 6 7 8 9	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past	3 4 5 6 7 8 9	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable asking him questions,
13	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable asking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?
MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  Q. And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation and that's why he didn't do it or that's why he was approaching it that way.  MS. O'BRIEN:  14 know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:  19 Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not?  20 S/SGT. OSMOND:  21 OSMOND:  22 S/SGT. OSMOND:  23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable asking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:
Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  Q. And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation and that's why he didn't do it or that's why he as a pproaching it that way.  A record the driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND:	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable asking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  ORACLE And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation and that way.  Make from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:  ORACLE AND	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable asking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I
17 spontaneous utterances, you know. 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was 22 essentially part of the investigation and 23 that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 24 was approaching it that way.  17 if it was me, I would have done what he did. 18 MS. O'BRIEN: 19 Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the 20 same whether Constable Smyth was a police 21 officer or not? 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable asking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's
18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was 22 essentially part of the investigation and 23 that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 24 was approaching it that way.  18 MS. O'BRIEN: 19 Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the 20 same whether Constable Smyth was a police 21 officer or not? 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in 24 a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable asking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be
18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was 22 essentially part of the investigation and 23 that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 24 was approaching it that way.  18 MS. O'BRIEN: 19 Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the 20 same whether Constable Smyth was a police 21 officer or not? 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in 24 a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable asking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be
19 A. Yes. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was 22 essentially part of the investigation and 23 that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 24 was approaching it that way.  19 Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the 20 same whether Constable Smyth was a police 21 officer or not? 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in 24 a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable asking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that
20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. And but he said no one had told him he was 22 essentially part of the investigation and 23 that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 24 was approaching it that way.  20 same whether Constable Smyth was a police 21 officer or not? 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in 24 a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable asking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did.
Q. And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation and that's why he didn't do it or that's why he was approaching it that way.  21 officer or not? 22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND:	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable saking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:
essentially part of the investigation and that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 23 that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 24 was approaching it that way.  22 S/SGT. OSMOND: 23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable asking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the
that's why he didn't do it or that's why he 23 A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in 24 was approaching it that way. 24 a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable asking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police
24 was approaching it that way. 24 a situation a couple years back where a	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. And but he said no one had told him he was	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable saking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not?
	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation and	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable asking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not?  S/SGT. OSMOND:
LAT GUIGET ON FOLID	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation and that's why he didn't do it or that's why he	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable asking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in
25 S/SGT. OSMOND: 25 member picked up somebody involved in one of	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	said that he was, you know, trying to dissuade or keep Constable Smyth from speaking about the events.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm. Sorry, yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. And I questioned whether that was, you know, proper police tactics, as I have worked with police officers over the past many years. I normally understand they're quite keen to record spontaneous utterances.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So I would have thought that would have been part of his training, to record spontaneous utterances, you know.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. And but he said no one had told him he was essentially part of the investigation and that's why he didn't do it or that's why he was approaching it that way.	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	Q. I can certainly see that if he was actively questioning, then there could be a Charter concern.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. I see your – I take your point there. But what if it's just Constable Smyth speaking, not Constable sking him questions, just Constable Smyth speaking?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. You're – it's a bit of a situation there too because nothing's being recorded. I mean I know his notebook is recording, but he's driving and his notes then are going to be made from memory. I really do believe that if it was me, I would have done what he did.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. What if it was – would that be the same whether Constable Smyth was a police officer or not?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes. I would not have wanted to – I was in a situation a couple years back where a

INTERVIEW	OF S/SGT	KENT	OSMOND
11 1 1 1 1 1 1 2 1 2 1 1 1 2 1 2 1 1	OF OOLE.	INITIALI

talk to you" kind of thing, and he said  yeah" and I remember he said like "I want to give a statement with every bone in my body, but I know I'll be a better witness if I wait" and I agreed with him. I mean based on what I understand to be traumar recall and what I've been told, but also because of the fact that if he was declining, he was declining and there was nothing – we couldn't compel it from him, so we might as well just, you know, maintain a good rapport and hope he comes in the next day.  MS. O'BRIEN:  O'Chay. This seems to be – so looking at your totes on page four, it seems to be at 17:45 you note that at approximately that time 'Henstridge advises Smyth not prepared to provide statement at this time''.  SySGT. OSMOND:  No O'Ray. And you're saying that this comes from your – what you had learned, you know, been told sort of along the way by your SSR?  SySGT. OSMOND:  No O'Ray. And you're saying that this comes from your – what you had learned, you know, been told sort of along the way by your SSR?  SySGT. OSMOND:  No O'Ray. This seems to be – so looking at your life you note that at approximately that time 'Henstridge advises Smyth not prepared to provide statement at this time''.  SySGT. OSMOND:  No O'Ray. The here's – I've seen documentation, like brochures, you know, and that kind of thing and you read them and I mean that's what it advises, if you're involved in a police – like at traumatic use of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.  MS. O'BRIEN:  A. Yeah.  SySGT. OSMOND:  SySGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  O'Chay. There's – I've seen documentation, like brochures, you know, and that kind of thing and you read them and I mean that's what it advises, if you're involved in a police – like at traumatic use of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.  SySGT. OSMOND:  No O'Ray.  MS. O'BRIEN:  O'Chay. There's – I've seen documentation, like brochures, you know, been told sort of along the way by your SSGT.  SySGT. OSMOND:  No O'Ray.  MS. O'BRIEN:  O'Chay. There's – I've seen doc						INTERVIEW OF S/SG1. KENT OSMOND
2 "yeah" and I remember he said like "I want to give a statement with every bone in my body, but I know I'll be a better witness if I wait" and I agreed with him. The mean based on what I understand to be trauma recall and what I've been told, but also because of the fact that if he was declining, he was declining and there was nothing – we couldn't compel if from him, so we might as well just, you know, maintain a good rapport in well just, you know, maintain a good rapport in well just, you know, maintain a good rapport in well just, you know, maintain a good rapport in well just, you know, maintain a good rapport in well just, you know, maintain a good rapport in well just, you know, maintain a good rapport in well just, you know, maintain a good rapport in well just, you know, maintain a good rapport in well just, you know maintain a good rapport in well just, you know maintain the was delined in the well just your note that at approximately that time "Henstridge advises Smyth not prepared to provide statement at this time".  19 SysGT. OSMOND:  10 Couldn't compel if from him, so we might as well just, you know, how and soing at your notes that a flapproximately that time "Henstridge advises Smyth not prepared to provide statement at this time".  10 When the was declining and your cannot good to main the was done of the was delined to th	1		Page 141			Page 143
declining and there was nothing – we declining, he was declining and there was nothing – we well just, you know, maintain a good rapport and hope he comes in the next day.  MS. O'BRIEN:	1		talk to you" kind of thing, and he said	1	A.	No.
to give a statement with every bone in my body, but I know I'll be a better witness if I vaii' and I agreed with him. I mean based on what I understand to be trauma recall and what I've been told, but also because of the fact that if he was declining, he was declining and there was nothing — we couldn't compel it from him, so we might as well just, you know, maintain a good rapport and hope he comes in the next day.  MS. O'BRIEN:  M	2		"yeah" and I remember he said like "I want	2	MS. O'BRIEN	J :
body, but I know I'll be a better witness if I wait' and I agreed with him. I mean based on what I understand to be trauma recall and what I've been told, but also because of the fact that if he was declining, he was 9 declining and there was nothing —we couldn't compel if from him, so we might as well just, you know, maintan a good rapport I'll well just, you know, maintan a good rapport I'll well just, you know, maintan a good rapport I'll well just, you know, maintan a good rapport I'll well just, you know, maintan a good rapport I'll well just, you know, maintan a good rapport I'll well just, you know, maintan a good rapport I'll well just, you know, maintan a good rapport I'll well just, you know, maintan a good rapport I'll well just, you know, and had a tapproximately that time I'll well just gadvises Smyth not prepared to provide statement at this time".  15			•	3	0.	None at all?
5   I wait* and I agreed with him. I mean based on whant I understand to be trauma recall and whant I've been told, but also because of the gett that if he was declining, he was declining and there was nothing – we couldn't compel it from him, so we might as well just, you know, maintain a good rapport and hope he comes in the next day.  13 MS. O'BRIEN:  14 Q. Okay. This seems to be – so looking at your notes on page four, it seems to be at 17:45 you note that at approximately heat in ment of your notes on page four, it seems to be at 17:45 you note that at approximately hat intemed the seems of	1				•
on what I understand to be trauma recall and what I've been told, but also because of the fact that if he was declining, he was declining, he was declining and there was nothing – we couldn't compel it from him, so we might as well just, you know, maintain a good rapport and hope he comes in the next day.  Ill wand hope he comes in the next day.  Ill WS, O'BRIEN:    Q Okay. This seems to be – so looking at your notes on page four, it seems to be at 17:45 you note that at approximately that time provide and seement at this time."    SSGT. OSMOND:   SSGT	1		• •
what I've heen told, but also because of the fact that if he was declining, he was declining and there was nothing —we couldn't compel it from him, so we might as well just, you know, maintain a good rapport and hope he comes in the next day.   11	1		•
Fact that if he was declining, he was declining and there was nothing – we couldn't compel it from him, so we might as well just, you know, maintain a good rapport and hope he comes in the next day.    MS. O'BRIEN:	1
Signature   Sign	1				Q.
10	1		•
Mell just, you know, maintain a good rapport and hope he comes in the next day.   12	1
13   MS. O'BRIEN:   13   Framework and hope he comes in the next day.   12   Q. Okay. And you're saying that this comes from your – what you had learned, you know, not notes on page four, it seems to be at 17:45   5   S/SGT. OSMOND:   16   You note that at approximately that time   17   Henstridge advises Smyth not prepared to provide statement at this time".   18   S/SGT. OSMOND:   19   Manual that kind of thing and you read them and I   18   mean that's what it advises, if you're   17   mean that's what it advises, if you're   18   mean that's what it advises, if you're   18   mean that's what it advises, if you're   19   mean that's what it advises, if you're   19   mean that's what it advises, if you're   19   mean that's what it advises, if you're   18   MS. O'BRIEN:   20   S/SGT. OSMOND:   21   MS. O'BRIEN:   22   MS. O'BRIEN:   23   MS. O'BRIEN:   24   MS. O'BRIEN:   25   MS. O'BRIEN:   26   MS. O'BRIEN:   27   MS. O'BRIEN:   28   MS. O'BRIEN:   29   MS. O'BRIEN:   29   MS. O'BRIEN:   29   MS. O'BRIEN:   20   MS. O'BRIEN:   21   MS. O'BRIEN:   21   MS. O'BRIEN:   21   MS. O'BRIEN:   22   MS. O'BRIEN:   23   MS. O'BRIEN:   24   MS. O'BRIEN:   25   MS. O'BRIEN:   26   MS. O'BRIEN:   27   MS. O'BRIEN:   28   MS. O'BRIEN:   29   MS. O'BRIEN:   29   MS. O'BRIEN:   29   MS. O'BRIEN:   20   Manual that was a normal reaction in my opinion.   20   MS. O'BRIEN:   21   MS. O'BRIEN:   21   MS. O'BRIEN:   22   MS. O'BRIEN:   23   MS. O'BRIEN:   24   MS. O'BRIEN:   25   MS. O'BRIEN:   26   MS. O'BRIEN:   27   MS. O'BRIEN:   28   MS. O'BRIEN:   29   MS. O'BRIEN:   20   MS. O'BRIEN:   2	1		•
13   MS. O'BRIEN:   13   from your — what you had learned, you know, and notes on page four, it seems to be at 17:45   you note that at approximately that time   17   Henstridge advises Smyth not prepared to provide statement at this time".   18   Provide statement at this time".   19   S/SGT. OSMOND:   19   Mark kind of thing and you read them and I mind that kind of thing and you read them and I mind that kind of thing and you read them and I mind that kind of thing and you read them and I mind that kind of thing and you read them and I mind that kind of thing and you read them and I mean that's what it advises, if you're involved in a police — like a traumatic use of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   22   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   23   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   24   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   25   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   26   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   26   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   27   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   28   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   28   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   29   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   29   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   20   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   20   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   21   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   22   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   23   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   23   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   24   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   25   of force event, you're better off waiting for a while.   25   of force event, you're in his had a hand beach danaged his clothes and saked him how he was doing.   25   of force event, you're	1		well just, you know, maintain a good rapport		MS. O'BRIEN
14   Q. Okay. This seems to be – so looking at your   15	12			12	Q.	Okay. And you're saying that this comes
14   Q. Okay. This seems to be – so looking at your   15   15   15   15   15   15   15   1	13	MS. O'BRIEN	J:	13		from your – what you had learned, you know,
15	14	0.	Okay. This seems to be – so looking at your	14		•
16	1		•		S/SGT_OSMO
17	1		¥ •
18			, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,		1 1.	· ·
19	1					· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
A. Right.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. "Says he will provide, just wants to decompress" and that is – then your note is at 19:00 approximate time, so later than that "I saw Smyth walking by the boardroom been involved in traumatic use of force event, you're better off waiting 22 for a while.  MS. O'BRIEN:  A and spoke briefly. I noted he had changed his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow".  MS. O'BRIEN:  A Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So at this point, you know, there wasn't – you know, there wasn't		C/CCT OCM	1			· · ·
MS. O'BRIEN:	1
22 Q. "Says he will provide, just wants to decompress" and that is – then your note is at 19:00 approximate time, so later than that "I saw Smyth walking by the boardroom that was and spoke briefly. I noted he had changed his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow". S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I might and then we could have followed up with a second or a third statement even, right, like we did, but we can't compel it and I'm trying to establish a rapport with him and —			•			*
decompress" and that is – then your note is at 19:00 approximate time, so later than that "I saw Smyth walking by the boardroom that "I saw Smyth walking by the boardroom Page 142  I and spoke briefly. I noted he had changed his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his lor recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow".  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With every bone in his body but knows his with family and we could talk tomorrow".  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With every bone in his body but knows his to provide a statement now with family and we could talk tomorrow".  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With every bone in his body but knows his to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his in true to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With every seen anything like that an every seen anything like that, no.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I might and then we could have followed up with a second or a third statement even, right, like we did, but we can't compel it and I'm trying to establish a rapp	1
24 at 19:00 approximate time, so later than that "1 saw Smyth walking by the boardroom been involved in traumatic events?  Page 142  1 and spoke briefly. I noted he had changed 1 sis clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow."  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. And is this advising police officers who've been involved in traumatic events?  Page 144  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. I've never seen anything like that, no.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from — you know, when you have a suspect of a criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So at this point, you know, there wasn't – you know, there wasn o effort made to persuade Constable Smyth to give a  24 Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  25 A. Yes.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time o – you know, 24-48 hours prior to be being interviewed?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. I've never seen anything like that, no.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from eximinal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I would have preferred if he had done it that	1	Q.
Page 142  I and spoke briefly. I noted he had changed his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow.'  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. I've never seen anything like that, no.  MS. O'BRIEN:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. I've never seen anything like that, no.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  A. Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I and I'm trying to establish a rapport with him and —  MS. O'BRIEN:  A. Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I and I'm trying to establish a rapport with him and —	1		- · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·		MS. O'BRIEN
Page 142  1 and spoke briefly. I noted he had changed 2 his clothes and asked him how he was doing. 3 He said he keeps playing it over in his head 4 and wondered why the guy did what he did. 5 Then he wonders if he could have done 6 something different in response. I told him 7 that was a normal reaction in my opinion. 8 He said he wants to provide a statement now 9 with every bone in his body but knows his 10 recall will be better tomorrow. I told him 11 he was right and he should go home and be 12 with family and we could talk tomorrow". 13 S/SGT. OSMOND: 14 A. Um-hm. 15 MS. O'BRIEN: 16 Q. And is that an accurate note of your 17 interaction with him? 17 MS. O'BRIEN: 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Um-hm. 19 A. Um-hm. 19 A. Um-hm. 19 Would have preferred if he had done it that 19 MS. O'BRIEN: 20 Okay. So at this point, you know, there 21 Wasn't – you know, there was no effort made 22 wasn't – you know, there was no effort made 23 to persuade Constable Smyth to give a 24 statement that night? 21 Page 144  S/SGT. OSMOND: 22 A. Yes. 3 MS. O'BRIEN: 4 Q. Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. I've never seen anything like that, no.  MS. O'BRIEN: 2 Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from - you know, when you have a suspect of a criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND: 2 Volay. So at this point, you know, there 2 wasn't – you know, there was no effort made 2 to persuade Constable Smyth to give a 2 and I'm trying to establish a rapport with him and –	24		at 19:00 approximate time, so later than	24	Q.
and spoke briefly. I noted he had changed his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow."  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With a was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow."  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With a was a normal reaction in my opinion. With family and we could talk tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow."  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With a was a normal reaction in my opinion. With family and we could talk tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow."  MS. O'BRIEN:  WIS	25		that "I saw Smyth walking by the boardroom	25		been involved in traumatic events?
and spoke briefly. I noted he had changed his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow."  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With a was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow."  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With a was a normal reaction in my opinion. With a was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow."  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With a was a normal reaction in my opinion. With a was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now being interviewed?  Wish a normal reaction with statement view of cime to —you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed?  Wish o'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're 12 criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I would have preferred if he had done it that 19 would have preferred if he had done it that 19 would have preferred if he had done it that 19 would have preferred if he had done it that 19 would have preferred if he had done it that 19 would have preferred if he had done it that 19 would have preferred if he had done it that 19 would have preferred if he had done it that 19 would have preferred if he had done it that 19 would have preferred if he			Page 142			Page 144
his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow".  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'	l 1
He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow.''  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from - you know, when you have a suspect of a criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from eget the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I would have preferred if he had done it that would have preferred if he had done it that might?  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So at this point, you know, there was no effort made to persuade Constable Smyth to give a statement that night?	1		and spoke briefly. I noted he had changed	1	S/SGT. OSM	OND:
and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow."  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from 4. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So at this point, you know, there wuld have preferred if he had done it that night and then we could have followed up with a second or a third statement even, right, like we did, but we can't compel it to persuade Constable Smyth to give a statement that night?  A. Um trying to establish a rapport with him and —	1
Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow."  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  C. And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  D. And Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  D. And Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  D. And Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  D. With family and we could talk tomorrow.  MS. O'BRIEN:  D. With family and we could talk tomorrow.  MS. O'BRIEN:  D. With family and we could talk tomorrow.  MS. O'BRIEN:  D. With family and we could talk tomorrow.  MS. O'BRIEN:  D. With a second or a third statement even, right, like we did, but we can't compel it to persuade Constable Smyth to give a and I'm trying to establish a rapport with him and —	2		his clothes and asked him how he was doing.	2	A.	Yes.
something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion.  He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  MS. O'BRIEN:  Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying	2 3		his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head	2 3	A. MS. O'BRIEN	Yes. N:
that was a normal reaction in my opinion.  He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  C. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from -you know, when you have a suspect of a criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  C. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from -you know, when you have a suspect of a get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  C. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from -you know, when you have a suspect of a get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  C. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from -you know, when you have a suspect of a get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  C. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from -you know, when you have a suspect of a get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  C. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  C. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from -you know, thene was a suspect of a get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  C. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  C. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  C. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're tryin	2 3 4		his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did.	2 3 4	A. MS. O'BRIEN	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that
He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow".  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With family and we could talk tomorrow".  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With family and we could talk tomorrow".  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  With family and we could talk tomorrow".  MS. O'BRIEN:  Council a criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them?  MS. O'BRIEN:	2 3 4 5		his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done	2 3 4 5	A. MS. O'BRIEN	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow".  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With family and we could talk tomorrow".  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With family and we could talk tomorrow".  With family and the seen anything like that, no.  MS. O'BRIEN:  With a case, isn't what you're  trying to get is the freshest evidence from  Left of the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  With family and we could have preferred if he had done it that  would have preferred if he had done it that  night and then we could have followed up  with a second or a third statement even,  right, like we did, but we can't compel it  to persuade Constable Smyth to give a  statement that night?  With a second or a third statement even,  right, like we did, but we can't compel it  and I'm trying to establish a rapport with  him and —	2 3 4 5 6		his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him	2 3 4 5 6	A. MS. O'BRIEN	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow".  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  LYPHICH TOWNS AND	2 3 4 5 6 7		his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion.	2 3 4 5 6 7	A. MS. O'BRIEN	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to
he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow".  NS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from	2 3 4 5 6 7 8		his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed?
with family and we could talk tomorrow".    12   Q. Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from trying to get is the freshest evidence from     14	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9		his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSM	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND:
S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  MS. O'BRIEN:  OR And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  MS. O'BRIEN:  OR And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  MS. O'BRIEN:  OR AND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  OR Okay. So at this point, you know, there was no effort made to persuade Constable Smyth to give a to persuade Constable Smyth to give a statement that night?  It trying to get is the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I would have preferred if he had done it that night and then we could have followed up with a second or a third statement even, right, like we did, but we can't compel it and I'm trying to establish a rapport with him and —	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10		his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSMA	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no.
A. Um-hm.  14 — you know, when you have a suspect of a 15 MS. O'BRIEN: 16 Q. And is that an accurate note of your 17 interaction with him? 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Um-hm. 19 A. Um-hm. 19 Would have preferred if he had done it that 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 20 night and then we could have followed up 21 Q. Okay. So at this point, you know, there 22 wasn't – you know, there was no effort made 23 to persuade Constable Smyth to give a 24 statement that night? 21 you know, when you have a suspect of a 25 criminal investigation aren't you trying to 26 get the freshest evidence from them? 27 S/SGT. OSMOND: 28 A. Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I 29 would have preferred if he had done it that 20 night and then we could have followed up 21 with a second or a third statement even, 22 right, like we did, but we can't compel it 23 and I'm trying to establish a rapport with 24 him and –	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11		his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSM A. MS. O'BRIEN	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N:
MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  MS. O'BRIEN:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So at this point, you know, there was no effort made to persuade Constable Smyth to give a statement that night?  MS. O'BRIEN:  15 criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  18 A. Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I would have preferred if he had done it that with a second or a third statement even, right, like we did, but we can't compel it and I'm trying to establish a rapport with him and —	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12		his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow".	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSM A. MS. O'BRIEN	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N: Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're
MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  MS. O'BRIEN:  A. Um-hm.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. So at this point, you know, there was no effort made to persuade Constable Smyth to give a statement that night?  MS. O'BRIEN:  15 criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  18 A. Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I would have preferred if he had done it that with a second or a third statement even, right, like we did, but we can't compel it and I'm trying to establish a rapport with him and —	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	S/SGT. OSM	his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow".	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSM A. MS. O'BRIEN	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N: Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from
16 Q. And is that an accurate note of your 17 interaction with him? 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Um-hm. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. Okay. So at this point, you know, there 22 wasn't – you know, there was no effort made 23 to persuade Constable Smyth to give a 24 statement that night? 16 get the freshest evidence from them? 17 S/SGT. OSMOND: 18 A. Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I 19 would have preferred if he had done it that 20 night and then we could have followed up 21 with a second or a third statement even, 22 right, like we did, but we can't compel it 23 and I'm trying to establish a rapport with 24 him and –	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13		his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow".	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSM A. MS. O'BRIEN	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N: Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from
17 interaction with him? 18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Um-hm. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. Okay. So at this point, you know, there 22 wasn't – you know, there was no effort made 23 to persuade Constable Smyth to give a 24 statement that night?  17 S/SGT. OSMOND: 18 A. Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I 20 might and then we could have followed up 21 with a second or a third statement even, 22 right, like we did, but we can't compel it 23 and I'm trying to establish a rapport with 24 him and –	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	A.	his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow". OND:	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSM A. MS. O'BRIEN	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N: Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from – you know, when you have a suspect of a
18 S/SGT. OSMOND: 19 A. Um-hm. 19 Would have preferred if he had done it that 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 20 Okay. So at this point, you know, there 21 Q. Okay. So at this point, you know, there 22 wasn't – you know, there was no effort made 23 to persuade Constable Smyth to give a 24 statement that night?  A. Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I 20 might and then we could have followed up 21 with a second or a third statement even, 22 right, like we did, but we can't compel it 23 and I'm trying to establish a rapport with 24 him and –	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	A. MS. O'BRIEN	his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow". OND:  Um-hm.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSM A. MS. O'BRIEN	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N: Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from – you know, when you have a suspect of a criminal investigation aren't you trying to
19 A. Um-hm. 20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. Okay. So at this point, you know, there 22 wasn't – you know, there was no effort made 23 to persuade Constable Smyth to give a 24 statement that night?  19 would have preferred if he had done it that 20 night and then we could have followed up 21 with a second or a third statement even, 22 right, like we did, but we can't compel it 23 and I'm trying to establish a rapport with 24 him and –	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	A. MS. O'BRIEN	his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow". OND:  Um-hm.  J:  And is that an accurate note of your	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSMO A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N: Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from – you know, when you have a suspect of a criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them?
20 MS. O'BRIEN: 21 Q. Okay. So at this point, you know, there 22 wasn't – you know, there was no effort made 23 to persuade Constable Smyth to give a 24 statement that night? 20 night and then we could have followed up 21 with a second or a third statement even, 22 right, like we did, but we can't compel it 23 and I'm trying to establish a rapport with 24 him and –	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.	his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow". OND:  Um-hm. W:  And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSMA A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N: Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from – you know, when you have a suspect of a criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them? OND:
Q. Okay. So at this point, you know, there wasn't – you know, there was no effort made to persuade Constable Smyth to give a statement that night?  Q. Okay. So at this point, you know, there was no effort made right, like we did, but we can't compel it and I'm trying to establish a rapport with him and –	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q. S/SGT. OSM	his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow". OND:  Um-hm.  V:  And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  OND:	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSMA A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N: Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from – you know, when you have a suspect of a criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them? OND: Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I wasn't – you know, there was no effort made to persuade Constable Smyth to give a statement that night?  22 right, like we did, but we can't compel it and I'm trying to establish a rapport with him and –	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q. S/SGT. OSM	his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow". OND:  Um-hm.  V:  And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  OND:  Um-hm.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSMA A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N: Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from – you know, when you have a suspect of a criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them? OND: Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I would have preferred if he had done it that to persuade Constable Smyth to give a and I'm trying to establish a rapport with statement that night?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q. S/SGT. OSM A. MS. O'BRIEN	his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow". OND:  Um-hm.  J:  And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  OND:  Um-hm.  U:  Um-hm.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSMA A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N: Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from – you know, when you have a suspect of a criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them? OND: Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I would have preferred if he had done it that night and then we could have followed up
24 statement that night? 24 him and –	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q. S/SGT. OSM A. MS. O'BRIEN	his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow". OND:  Um-hm. J:  And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him? OND: Um-hm. J: Okay. So at this point, you know, there	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSMA A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N: Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from – you know, when you have a suspect of a criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them? OND: Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I would have preferred if he had done it that night and then we could have followed up with a second or a third statement even,
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q. S/SGT. OSM A. MS. O'BRIEN	his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow". OND:  Um-hm.  V:  And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  OND:  Um-hm.  V:  Okay. So at this point, you know, there wasn't – you know, there was no effort made	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSMA A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N: Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from – you know, when you have a suspect of a criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them? OND: Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I would have preferred if he had done it that night and then we could have followed up with a second or a third statement even, right, like we did, but we can't compel it
25 S/SG1, USMUND: 25 MS, U'BRIEN:	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q. S/SGT. OSM A. MS. O'BRIEN	his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow". OND:  Um-hm. U:  And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  OND:  Um-hm. U:  Okay. So at this point, you know, there wasn't – you know, there was no effort made to persuade Constable Smyth to give a	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSMA A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N: Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from – you know, when you have a suspect of a criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them? OND: Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I would have preferred if he had done it that night and then we could have followed up with a second or a third statement even, right, like we did, but we can't compel it and I'm trying to establish a rapport with
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q. S/SGT. OSM A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.	his clothes and asked him how he was doing. He said he keeps playing it over in his head and wondered why the guy did what he did. Then he wonders if he could have done something different in response. I told him that was a normal reaction in my opinion. He said he wants to provide a statement now with every bone in his body but knows his recall will be better tomorrow. I told him he was right and he should go home and be with family and we could talk tomorrow". OND:  Um-hm.  J:  And is that an accurate note of your interaction with him?  OND:  Um-hm.  V:  Okay. So at this point, you know, there wasn't – you know, there was no effort made to persuade Constable Smyth to give a statement that night?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSM A. MS. O'BRIEN Q.  S/SGT. OSM A.	Yes. N: Okay. Have you ever read anything like that about potential like suspects of criminal investigations that they should be given time to – you know, 24-48 hours prior to being interviewed? OND: I've never seen anything like that, no. N: Okay. So in that case, isn't what you're trying to get is the freshest evidence from – you know, when you have a suspect of a criminal investigation aren't you trying to get the freshest evidence from them? OND: Um-hm. And like I said, I mean, you know, I would have preferred if he had done it that night and then we could have followed up with a second or a third statement even, right, like we did, but we can't compel it and I'm trying to establish a rapport with him and –

	mber 19, 2016			INTERVIEW OF S/SGT. KENT OSMOND
		Page 145		Page 147
1	Q.	Okay. You say you couldn't compel it. Did	1	investigation?
2		you make any investigations or any inquiries	2	S/SGT. OSMOND:
3		to find out whether he was required by the	3	A. I'm saying I would have to consider whether
4		RNC to give a report of his activities that	4	or not it should be and whether or not it
5		day before going off shift?	5	could be. I don't know that and if you are
6	S/SGT. OSM	, , ,	l	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
			6	compelled by policy or guideline through
7	A.	I didn't, no.	/	your organization to provide a written
8	MS. O'BRIEN		8	account of something that happened and then
9	Q.	Okay. Do you know if anybody else did?	9	either at that time or later it's determined
10	S/SGT. OSM		10	that it was a criminal thing that you did
11	A.	No, I don't.	11	and the investigators now have that
12	MS. O'BRIEN	1 :	12	compelled testimony in effect from you, then
13	Q.	Okay. Do you think that's something the	13	there's a problem.
14	`	RCMP should have found out?	14	MS. O'BRIEN:
15	S/SGT. OSM		15	Q. Do you know that there's a problem?
16	A.	It wouldn't have mattered because if he was	16	S/SGT. OSMOND:
17	11.	required to report, then he would have	17	A. Well, in my opinion, there could be a
18		reported and then we would have gotten that	18	problem, yes.
			19	MS. O'BRIEN:
19		information either way, but if he's required	ı
20		to report then the information we get from	20	Q. Okay.
21		him is compelled and I don't know how useful	21	S/SGT. OSMOND:
22		it is to us anyway if it's compelled. Like	22	A. Because it's compelled. You haven't been
23		if it had been a criminal investigation,	23	read your Charter rights. Nothing's been
24		then he has a right not to incriminate	24	done to protect your rights, but you've
25		himself. So maybe that information wouldn't	25	handed that over to your employer who's then
		 		y r
		Page 146		Page 148
1		-	1	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	MS. O'BRIE	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway.	1 2	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think
2		Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N:	1 2 3	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.
2 3	MS. O'BRIE Q.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal	3	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there. MS. O'BRIEN:
2 3 4	Q.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time?	3 4	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there. MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay.
2 3 4 5	Q. S/SGT. OSM	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND:	3 4 5	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND:
2 3 4 5 6	Q. S/SGT. OSM A.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right.	3 4 5 6	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of
2 3 4 5 6 7	Q. S/SGT. OSM A. MS. O'BRIE	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N:	3 4 5 6 7	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my
2 3 4 5 6 7 8	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay.	3 4 5 6 7 8	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND:	3 4 5 6 7 8 9	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN:
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we would have gotten that file material anyway,	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative impact that allowing Constable Smyth, you
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we would have gotten that file material anyway, be it that day or the next day or the day	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative impact that allowing Constable Smyth, you know, so much time before he gave his
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we would have gotten that file material anyway, be it that day or the next day or the day after, but it wouldn't have changed. It	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative impact that allowing Constable Smyth, you know, so much time before he gave his statement? So, not until the next evening
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we would have gotten that file material anyway, be it that day or the next day or the day	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative impact that allowing Constable Smyth, you know, so much time before he gave his
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we would have gotten that file material anyway, be it that day or the next day or the day after, but it wouldn't have changed. It	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative impact that allowing Constable Smyth, you know, so much time before he gave his statement? So, not until the next evening
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we would have gotten that file material anyway, be it that day or the next day or the day after, but it wouldn't have changed. It would have been his report. And if it had	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative impact that allowing Constable Smyth, you know, so much time before he gave his statement? So, not until the next evening that he gave his statement, right? Do you
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we would have gotten that file material anyway, be it that day or the next day or the day after, but it wouldn't have changed. It would have been his report. And if it had been, theoretically a criminal investigation, then compelled information	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative impact that allowing Constable Smyth, you know, so much time before he gave his statement? So, not until the next evening that he gave his statement, right? Do you see any potential for a negative impact on the investigation because of that?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we would have gotten that file material anyway, be it that day or the next day or the day after, but it wouldn't have changed. It would have been his report. And if it had been, theoretically a criminal investigation, then compelled information from a person, the subject of a criminal	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative impact that allowing Constable Smyth, you know, so much time before he gave his statement? So, not until the next evening that he gave his statement, right? Do you see any potential for a negative impact on the investigation because of that?  S/SGT. OSMOND:
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we would have gotten that file material anyway, be it that day or the next day or the day after, but it wouldn't have changed. It would have been his report. And if it had been, theoretically a criminal investigation, then compelled information from a person, the subject of a criminal investigation, once we see it, we can't	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative impact that allowing Constable Smyth, you know, so much time before he gave his statement? So, not until the next evening that he gave his statement, right? Do you see any potential for a negative impact on the investigation because of that?  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Well, I mean, theoretically, he could have
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM. A.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we would have gotten that file material anyway, be it that day or the next day or the day after, but it wouldn't have changed. It would have been his report. And if it had been, theoretically a criminal investigation, then compelled information from a person, the subject of a criminal investigation, once we see it, we can't unsee it and it could be a problem.	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative impact that allowing Constable Smyth, you know, so much time before he gave his statement? So, not until the next evening that he gave his statement, right? Do you see any potential for a negative impact on the investigation because of that?  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Well, I mean, theoretically, he could have concocted a story. I mean, that's clearly a
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM. A.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we would have gotten that file material anyway, be it that day or the next day or the day after, but it wouldn't have changed. It would have been his report. And if it had been, theoretically a criminal investigation, then compelled information from a person, the subject of a criminal investigation, once we see it, we can't unsee it and it could be a problem. N:	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative impact that allowing Constable Smyth, you know, so much time before he gave his statement? So, not until the next evening that he gave his statement, right? Do you see any potential for a negative impact on the investigation because of that?  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Well, I mean, theoretically, he could have concocted a story. I mean, that's clearly a downside. But our choice was – like we
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM. A.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we would have gotten that file material anyway, be it that day or the next day or the day after, but it wouldn't have changed. It would have been his report. And if it had been, theoretically a criminal investigation, then compelled information from a person, the subject of a criminal investigation, once we see it, we can't unsee it and it could be a problem. N: Okay. So are you saying that if a police	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative impact that allowing Constable Smyth, you know, so much time before he gave his statement? So, not until the next evening that he gave his statement, right? Do you see any potential for a negative impact on the investigation because of that?  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Well, I mean, theoretically, he could have concocted a story. I mean, that's clearly a downside. But our choice was – like we didn't have a choice.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM. A.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we would have gotten that file material anyway, be it that day or the next day or the day after, but it wouldn't have changed. It would have been his report. And if it had been, theoretically a criminal investigation, then compelled information from a person, the subject of a criminal investigation, once we see it, we can't unsee it and it could be a problem. N: Okay. So are you saying that if a police officer who's involved in a use of force	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative impact that allowing Constable Smyth, you know, so much time before he gave his statement? So, not until the next evening that he gave his statement, right? Do you see any potential for a negative impact on the investigation because of that?  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Well, I mean, theoretically, he could have concocted a story. I mean, that's clearly a downside. But our choice was – like we didn't have a choice.  MS. O'BRIEN:
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Q. S/SGT. OSM. A. MS. O'BRIE Q. S/SGT. OSM. A.	Page 146 have been any good to us anyway. N: Did you consider it to be a criminal investigation at this time? IOND: No, I'm throwing the theory out here, right. N: Okay. IOND: What I'm saying, if he was required to report then he would have reported and we would have gotten that file material anyway, be it that day or the next day or the day after, but it wouldn't have changed. It would have been his report. And if it had been, theoretically a criminal investigation, then compelled information from a person, the subject of a criminal investigation, once we see it, we can't unsee it and it could be a problem. N: Okay. So are you saying that if a police	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Page 148 handed it over to the police. Yeah, I think there could be a big problem there.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I've never been involved in that aspect of it. I'm just talking from my experience, my thoughts, I guess.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Absolutely, okay. Have you ever – do you see any potential downside or negative impact that allowing Constable Smyth, you know, so much time before he gave his statement? So, not until the next evening that he gave his statement, right? Do you see any potential for a negative impact on the investigation because of that?  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Well, I mean, theoretically, he could have concocted a story. I mean, that's clearly a downside. But our choice was – like we didn't have a choice.

Dece	ember 19, 2016		INTERVIEW OF S/SGT. KENT OSMOND
	Page 1	9	Page 151
1	A. Um-hm.	l 1	MS. O'BRIEN:
2	MS. O'BRIEN:	2	Q. Okay. Do you know if Meghan Dunphy was told
3	Q. You know, if – you could have said "we'd	3	she didn't have to provide a statement that
4	really like it if you could give us a	4	night?
5	statement now".	5	S/SGT. OSMOND:
6	S/SGT. OSMOND:	6	A. No, Joe wasn't told he didn't have to
7	A. I believe that was said to him. I don't	1 7	either. He just opted not to. And I told –
8	have a note of that, but I mean -	8	when I spoke with Meghan, I clearly told
9	MS. O'BRIEN:		her, "no, you didn't have to give us a
10	Q. Who do you believe said that to him?	10	statement that night."
11	S/SGT. OSMOND:	11	MS. O'BRIEN:
12	A. I think Steve Burke may have said that to	12	Q. Do you think she understood that?
13	him, but I mean, it was clear that we	13	S/SGT. OSMOND:
14	desired – in my opinion anyway, it was clo	ar   14	A. At the time?
15	that we desired a statement from him, if he		MS. O'BRIEN:
16	was going to give one, and he declined.	16	Q. Yeah.
17	MS. O'BRIEN:	17	S/SGT. OSMOND:
18	Q. Okay. But your statement says you told h		A. No, I'm sure she didn't.
19	he was right and he should go home.	19	MS. O'BRIEN:
20	S/SGT. OSMOND:	20	Q. Okay. Do you think Joe would have
21	A. Yeah, but you got to understand, I wasn't	21	understood it at the time that he -
22	asking him for a statement. I was talking	22	S/SGT. OSMOND:
23	to him about his decision to make a	23	A. Absolutely.
24	statement.	24	MS. O'BRIEN:
25	MS. O'BRIEN:	25	Q. Okay. What about the risk that, you know,
	D 1	^	D 4.50
	Page 1	0	Page 152
1	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might	0 1	Page 152 when you're – if you don't give a statement
1	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might	1	when you're - if you don't give a statement
2	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?	1 2	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later,
2 3	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know? S/SGT. OSMOND:	1 2 3	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know,
2 3 4	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know? S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.	1 2 3 4	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates
2 3 4 5	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know? S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:	1 2 3 4 5	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?
2 3 4 5 6	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He	1 2 3 4 5 6	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:
2 3 4 5 6 7	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know? S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone
2 3 4 5 6	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He	1 2 3 4 5 6	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:
2 3 4 5 6 7	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND:	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it was	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it was an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it was an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't understand the realities of the situation we	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it was fairly isolated in that regard and you
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it wa an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't understand the realities of the situation we were in and thought that we just arbitrarily	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it was fairly isolated in that regard and you know, clearly that was the biggest challenge
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it was an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't understand the realities of the situation we were in and thought that we just arbitrarily decided "no, you go home. We don't need	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it was fairly isolated in that regard and you know, clearly that was the biggest challenge with the investigation was the fact that
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it was an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't understand the realities of the situation we were in and thought that we just arbitrarily decided "no, you go home. We don't need statement from you" but we were at her hou	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 15 16	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it was fairly isolated in that regard and you know, clearly that was the biggest challenge with the investigation was the fact that there was no witnesses other than Constable
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it was an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't understand the realities of the situation we were in and thought that we just arbitrarily decided "no, you go home. We don't need	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it was fairly isolated in that regard and you know, clearly that was the biggest challenge with the investigation was the fact that
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN: Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND: A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it wa an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't understand the realities of the situation we were in and thought that we just arbitrarily decided "no, you go home. We don't need statement from you" but we were at her hou and what she perceived to be kind of an	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 15 16 17	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it was fairly isolated in that regard and you know, clearly that was the biggest challenge with the investigation was the fact that there was no witnesses other than Constable
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it wa an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't understand the realities of the situation we were in and thought that we just arbitrarily decided "no, you go home. We don't need statement from you" but we were at her how and what she perceived to be kind of an aggressive or insensitive statement. So I	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 15 16 17 18	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it was fairly isolated in that regard and you know, clearly that was the biggest challenge with the investigation was the fact that there was no witnesses other than Constable Smyth. So, you know, in that concern, I would have had less.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it was an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't understand the realities of the situation we were in and thought that we just arbitrarily decided "no, you go home. We don't need statement from you" but we were at her how and what she perceived to be kind of an aggressive or insensitive statement. So I mean, it would have – I guess the downside	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 15 16 17 18 19	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it was fairly isolated in that regard and you know, clearly that was the biggest challenge with the investigation was the fact that there was no witnesses other than Constable Smyth. So, you know, in that concern, I would have had less.  MS. O'BRIEN:
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it was an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't understand the realities of the situation we were in and thought that we just arbitrarily decided "no, you go home. We don't need statement from you" but we were at her how and what she perceived to be kind of an aggressive or insensitive statement. So I mean, it would have – I guess the downside of it was, you know, the friction it caused	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 16 17 18 19 20	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it was fairly isolated in that regard and you know, clearly that was the biggest challenge with the investigation was the fact that there was no witnesses other than Constable Smyth. So, you know, in that concern, I would have had less.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. What about in talking through his
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it was an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't understand the realities of the situation we were in and thought that we just arbitrarily decided "no, you go home. We don't need statement from you" but we were at her how and what she perceived to be kind of an aggressive or insensitive statement. So I mean, it would have — I guess the downside of it was, you know, the friction it caused with the family, but I mean, we can't — I	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 16 17 18 19 20 21	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it was fairly isolated in that regard and you know, clearly that was the biggest challenge with the investigation was the fact that there was no witnesses other than Constable Smyth. So, you know, in that concern, I would have had less.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. What about in talking through his statement with other people, them sort of
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it wa an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't understand the realities of the situation we were in and thought that we just arbitrarily decided "no, you go home. We don't need statement from you" but we were at her hot and what she perceived to be kind of an aggressive or insensitive statement. So I mean, it would have – I guess the downside of it was, you know, the friction it caused with the family, but I mean, we can't – I can't change that and we can't compel a	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it was fairly isolated in that regard and you know, clearly that was the biggest challenge with the investigation was the fact that there was no witnesses other than Constable Smyth. So, you know, in that concern, I would have had less.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. What about in talking through his statement with other people, them sort of suggesting ideas to him even though they
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it was an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't understand the realities of the situation we were in and thought that we just arbitrarily decided "no, you go home. We don't need statement from you" but we were at her how and what she perceived to be kind of an aggressive or insensitive statement. So I mean, it would have — I guess the downside of it was, you know, the friction it caused with the family, but I mean, we can't — I can't change that and we can't compel a statement out of a person that's unwilling.	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it was fairly isolated in that regard and you know, clearly that was the biggest challenge with the investigation was the fact that there was no witnesses other than Constable Smyth. So, you know, in that concern, I would have had less.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. What about in talking through his statement with other people, them sort of suggesting ideas to him even though they hadn't been there? Was that – you know,
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it wa an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't understand the realities of the situation we were in and thought that we just arbitrarily decided "no, you go home. We don't need statement from you" but we were at her hot and what she perceived to be kind of an aggressive or insensitive statement. So I mean, it would have – I guess the downside of it was, you know, the friction it caused with the family, but I mean, we can't – I can't change that and we can't compel a	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it was fairly isolated in that regard and you know, clearly that was the biggest challenge with the investigation was the fact that there was no witnesses other than Constable Smyth. So, you know, in that concern, I would have had less.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. What about in talking through his statement with other people, them sort of suggesting ideas to him even though they
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	Q. Okay. So you think Corporal Burke might have said that to him, but you don't know?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Yeah.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. Any other potential downsides? He could have concocted a story is one you gave.  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. I mean clearly, you know, after speaking with Meghan Dunphy, I mean, clearly it was an issue with her, but I mean, she didn't understand the realities of the situation we were in and thought that we just arbitrarily decided "no, you go home. We don't need statement from you" but we were at her how and what she perceived to be kind of an aggressive or insensitive statement. So I mean, it would have — I guess the downside of it was, you know, the friction it caused with the family, but I mean, we can't — I can't change that and we can't compel a statement out of a person that's unwilling.	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	when you're – if you don't give a statement immediately and give it sometimes later, you're learning other information, you know, that's coming your way and it contaminates your memory. Is that a concern?  S/SGT. OSMOND:  A. Not in this case because he was the lone person there. So there was – it's not like there were three or four witnesses who could have phoned him and said "well, we told the police this. Remember when that happened? Well, I told them about that". I mean, it was fairly isolated in that regard and you know, clearly that was the biggest challenge with the investigation was the fact that there was no witnesses other than Constable Smyth. So, you know, in that concern, I would have had less.  MS. O'BRIEN:  Q. Okay. What about in talking through his statement with other people, them sort of suggesting ideas to him even though they hadn't been there? Was that – you know,

