Dear Ms. Breen:

RE: RCMP Investigation into the Death of Donald Dunphy

I write in reply to your letter of April 16, 2015.

As the Minister responsible for policing services in this province, I take your client's concerns very seriously. There are, however, clear lines of separation between the executive branch of government and ongoing police investigations. While I believe your client has rightly brought this issue forward, it is for the police personnel assigned to this investigation to inquire further into its significance, which I am sure they will do.

We have every confidence in the abilities of the RCMP with the able oversight of Justice Riche to conduct a thorough and impartial investigation. I encourage you and your client to maintain open lines of communication with the RCMP at all times.

Sincerely,

Darin T. King, PhD
MHA, District of Grand Bank
Minister of Justice and Public Safety
