Subject: Twitter monitoring

Tom/Craig,

Just to update you on the monitoring of the Twitter page as per your concerns today. This person is very general in his comments, even though he sometimes uses WHSCC staff names. He is not making any direct threats, but he certainly is opinionated in his comments. There is actually a response to one of his comments stating he is being "defamatory". I do not think the police will act on the comments made today, but they were personal against one of our Managers.

Let me know if you wish to discuss this matter.

Shawn
