Re: Commendation for Social Media Development

I would like to acknowledge the many hours you have dedicated to create unique and engaging graphics and posts for the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary facebook account.

This social media initiative has promoted the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary as a modern, progressive and professional police service. Your efforts have transcended from assisting with investigations to recruiting applicants to the police studies program.

The RNC facebook account would not be the success it is today without your volunteering hours of your own time to ensure timely posts and quick responses. Your volunteerism and dedication are truly appreciated.

William J. Janes
Chief of Police
