Meghan DUNPHY showed up at the Holyrood office, and I gave her back her father's phone. She was enquiring about the SPCA, and how she could not get a hold of anyone at their office.

I checked with S/Sgt. TILLER, who had been speaking with Kristy, from the SPCA, on April 24th. Kristy advised that they had removed 46 cats, to date, and that they estimate that there is 25-30 more, still on the property. They were overwhelmed with the numbers, and have run out of room. It will take at least another month to get all the cats.

This info was passed on to Meghan.
