Thanks John. I feel we should do everything we can to assist Meghan and offer her support where we can. As for the questions below I don't see any other way around it:

1. We don't have any authority over the Twitter account;
2. Speaking with the RNC officer is of course ultimately his call (RNC decision) but we are not in a position to facilitate such a request;
3. The cats are free to go, if they can be summoned from outside the secured scene. Advise her as well we will not hold the scene any longer than necessary. Also we are working with SPCA to seek refuge for all the animals;
4. As far as we are concerned, she is the main contact for the family and will update as much as we can. I think you already have but advise her that this file will undoubtedly be a hot media topic for a bit;
5. Once the cell phone is analysed and no longer required, it will be returned as soon a practical.

If you guys feel any differently about these answers, please advise.

Steve

Hey Kent,

I just got back from a meeting with the daughter, Meghan DUNPHY. The meeting went well, but she had a few things she wanted me to look into.

1. she wants to shut down her father's Twitter account, as it is still getting a lot of activity

2. at some point, in the future, she would like to speak with the RNC officer - I told her that this is highly unusual, but I said I would forward her request.
3. she would like to take possession of two, specific, cats from her dad's home. She said that they would come to her if she called them, from out on the street.
4. she wants to be the main point of contact for the family. She is an only child, and her mother is deceased.
5. she wants her father's cell phone. It is her phone, but he used it. The account is in her name, and she pays the bill.

Just let me know your thoughts on these things, as I feel it would go a long way. So far, she said the RCMP has ignored any request she has made (her words).

Thanks,

John
