Good point.

Joe,

Can you please look after a firearm for Joe and have Joe Smyth come in today if available for a chat regarding his deployment.

As well, I have chatted with the Deputy, we will replace the license plate on Joe's vehicle but there is no reason to take it out of commission and replace it with a rental vehicle. I will contact the RCMP and see when we can get the vehicle back.

Thanks

j

Agree on all points. He may need a new firearm if he does not have one already.

Chief,

Joe, Deputy and myself have discussed this matter and all agree that upon Joe's return from AL, which may be 2 weeks, we should place him in CIU until the conclusion of the RCMP investigation. This will give him time to recover and keep him out of the limelight for a while.

He came from CIU and I think he will find it meaningful work upon his return. I was going to chat with him today on this very point.

We have 3 officers trained in VIP, Benoit and Tammy Madden, and she is off on maternity. Ed can maintain providing security for the premier in the meantime.

And yes Joe can easily return to CIU for the next few days.

Any thoughts?

Joe Jason

By policy today could be Joe Smyth first day back to work. Can one of you follow up with him and he could work in CIU for two days if he feels ready. Shawn ORIELLY may have some insight as well. Joe is going on AL Sat. We can chat about his deployment when he returns.
