Good Day Jason

Our investigation is completed and we will be forwarding the investigation to an outside external agency for review. (Peer to Peer). Once that review is completed we will be in a position to release findings of the investigation. We will be updating media by weeks end informing them of much the same info. I cant comment on the timeframe of the review at this time. Hopefully in the next week or so I can give you a tentative date.

Dont hesitate to call me.

Pat

Good Day Supt. Cahill,

I am wondering if there is an update on the Mitchell's Brook investigation?
I don't mean to rush you but Cst. Joe Smyth is looking to come back to work in an operational capacity. I am just wondering the status and when you feel you may have a determination regarding the investigation so that I can make decisions on this end regarding Smyth's possible/suitable deployment.

Regards,
jason
