She knows what we're doing and is supportive. As I said, we need to have John or Rod step in and manage this aspect. I agree she should not be there.

Did we have her written consent. I do not think she should be there as Joe does this. It will be very difficult for Joe to face her and if she becomes emotional etc.

We should explain to her what we are doing.

Good to go for 1 in Mitchell's Brook. Just a note for consideration, the daughter has provided us her consent to enter residence. She has relayed to Cst Galway that she can't understand why the member had to shoot her father. She is upset and may very well attend the residence while we are there. I have requested a marked pc in the area during the re-enactment. Basically the longer we are there the more opportunity for something to happen. I think we should advise the daughter of our intentions but of course she can withdraw her consent at anytime.

Thoughts?

Steve
